Mike Tomlin Head Coach

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on January 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Through eight seasons, Tomlin has accomplished many things that have never been done in the team's storied history. His 82-46 record (.641) is best start in franchise history, and he became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

In his eight years as head coach of the Steelers, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to four AFC North titles (including 2014) and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs five times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). Tomlin has won at least five home games in each of his first eight years, including six at Heinz Field in 2014.

Tomlin has sent a total of 45 selections to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl, including five following the 2014 season. Additionally, Tomlin was appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to the NFL's Competition Committee in March, 2013.

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin is very active in the community and was recognized, along with his wife Kiya, in February, 2013, by the Chuck Cooper Foundation with the Career Achievement in Leadership Diversity and Community Service Award. He has also been a spokesman for the Steelers' and UPMC Sports Medicine's "Don't Hit the Head, Don't Use the Head" program, which is in conjunction with USA Football's Head's Up program that promotes safety in all levels of football. Tomlin is also a member of the All-Pro Dad Team and serves as an honorary chair for the annual Extra Mile golf outing, which provides support for parochial elementary schools educating children of inner-city families.

In 2014, Tomlin, who has a defensive coaching background, orchestrated one of the top offensive outputs in team history in 2014. The Steelers broke numerous offensive records, including points scored (436), total yards (6,577), passing yards/game (301.6) and total first downs (379).

On an individual basis in 2014, Tomlin guided quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, wide receiver Antonio Brown and running back Le'Veon Bell – whom all made the Pro Bowl – to record-setting years. Roethlisberger had personal bests in passing yards (4,952), completions (408) and passing TDs (32, T-2007), while Brown established team records for receptions (129), receiving yards (1,698) and receiving TDs (13). Bell, in his first full year as a starter, who was also named Team MVP, broke the Steelers' records for scrimmage yards (2,215) as well as receptions (83) and receiving yards (854) by a running back.

Over the past two seasons, Tomlin has led the team to a 7-1 record in the month of December, winning each of the last four in 2014 to capture the AFC North title.

Arguably one of his best coaching performances may possibly have come in the second half of the 2013 season. Despite an 0-4 and 2-6 start to the season, the Steelers finished the regular season surging to a 6-2 second-half record, falling just short of the playoffs. However, he rallied the team despite numerous injuries on both sides of the ball, to stick together and finished second in the AFC North.

In 2012, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 27-10 victory over the New York Jets in the home opener, becoming the first coach in team history to win his first six home openers. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked overall defense (275.8 yards/game) and finished first in passing defense (185.2 yards/game).

In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team posted 12 wins, which was only the second time in team history it had been achieved. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, for the second time in Tomlin's career (2007). He also had five players (Roethlisberger, Mike Wallace, Maurkice Pouncey, Polamalu and Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers' defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed (62.8 yds./game), points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward, Santonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.
Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 touchdown catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

Coach Tomlin Press Conference
January 6, 2015

Head Coach Mike Tomlin: Good afternoon. It's the end of the year press conference. Like always I will summarize our last performance but I will also summarize the season for us and talk about where we are and how we got here. Obviously we met as a team yesterday. It is still very painful and raw for us. Like I told them, it should be. If it's not those feelings then something is wrong, because of what is required of us, what is needed to chase what we chase, the amount of energy and focus, what you have to give of yourself in order to pursue what we pursue year in and year out, when the journey comes to an end it should be elation or bitter disappointment. And it is that. We don't run away from that. I embrace that. It's just part of being who we are in this profession. I tried to educate some of the young guys to that, how they utilize these feelings that they have as fuel moving forward. I am excited about watching them do that. Now is really not the time to do that. It's really about reflecting and learning from the experiences that we had, wrapping a bow around those experiences in an effort to maximize the learning opportunity that is that experience, individually and collectively. How we go about doing that is that I have exit meetings with all players and with all coaches. We are just starting that process here this morning. It will be ongoing for the remainder of this week and even until the front part of next week if necessary. In some instances it is not pleasant but it is very necessary. I just think that to experience the things we experienced this year and not solidify it and talk about and learn from it, and use it as a tool as we move forward, would be less than professional. And we are going to be that. But like I told the group yesterday, we will get to that. More than anything I am just thankful for the efforts of the players and coaches. It wasn't an easy journey. It never is. I didn't expect it to be. But a lot of it was enjoyable, even the things that seemingly shouldn't be enjoyable. Oftentimes it's not what you do it's who you are doing it with. We had a really selfless group. We had a legitimately close group. We had both players and coaches that put the agenda of the group in front of their own agenda. That is mandatory if you want to have any chance of what you want to desire to be, but I still acknowledge when you get it that it's good. We didn't work against ourselves. Sometimes we created our own adversity but that's a learning process in itself. Hopefully there will be less of that as we move forward with some of the men that we continue to move forward with. That's what is going on with us. Again, I appreciate the efforts of the men. If I had to summarize our last game, it was what it was. We didn't do enough situationally to win. We knew what the circumstances of the situations were. We just didn't get it done. We didn't perform well enough in the red area on offense. We acknowledged leading into the football game that they were the No. 2 defense in the NFL in the red area. We probably didn't overcome the absence of Le'Veon Bell well enough in that area to be successful. I outlined the series as one that is characterized by physicality and splash plays, and they had more of that than we did, particularly as the game wore on. They created some turnovers down the stretch. I thought that became evident. But that's been evident in the history of this series. So I am not surprised by that. We accept responsibility for what happened. Obviously we didn't help our efforts with some of the penalties. Such is life. We learned a lot about penalties and how they affect the outcome of football games. I think collectively as a group this year and largely if you looked at the trajectory of the group, we got better in that regard. But that didn't work as an asset for us in the last football game. Again, I am thankful for the men and what they were willing to do. Forget what they are capable of. What they are willing to do on a day to day basis in terms of working to get better, I thought largely they did that. But we didn't realize our goal. And our goal is and always will be to be Champions. We fell short this year. We accept that. At the appropriate time we will move forward. I am sure I don't have a lot of answers that you may be looking for today in terms of how that might be, the players involved, coaches involved and things of that nature. I am just not there yet. I am more reflective and more in the mentality of summarizing what happened at this point. I hadn't had an opportunity to visit with many, if any, of these people. Obviously I will have the appropriate discussions with them regarding how we move forward before I have a lot of appropriate discussions with you about how we move forward. I just think that's the right way to go about business. So I will apologize on the front end if I don't have a lot of concrete answers about moving forward with you guys today. But I will do my best to answer any questions you might have.

Re: The performance of the coaching staff this season:
I was talking about the staff when I was talking about everyone. I routinely said players and coaches. And I think that it's tough to separate it because we're all in it together. I appreciate the efforts of the coaches as well as the players. I was referring to them when I was talking about the selfless nature (and) the willingness to work as opposed to what they're capable of. I have a lot of respect for what those men did and appreciation. When I was talking about the players I was talking about them as well in that regard.

How much would an injured groin affect Mike Mitchell's performance throughout the season?
I'm not into the excuse making. I'm not going to speculate on how that might have affected his performance. The reality is, as professional football players, often times they show and play in less than ideal physical circumstances. I appreciate his willingness to do that. I appreciate his efforts. I appreciate what he did for us. But I'm not going to quantify his production based on a set of circumstances that are really irrelevant in the big scheme of things. He was well enough to play. He's going to address that as we move forward. He's on the short list of guys that could be looking at offseason surgery to correct that issue. Ben (Roethlisberger) could have offseason surgery (in) a minor procedure to clean up his knee. Matt Spaeth could have an offseason surgery to clean up things with his elbow. Largely we're in pretty good shape from a health standpoint in terms of the things that the guys were dealing with and playing with. This season was no different than any other in that regard. I'm just not into that.

Re: Having a better record this season and do you think that the team was better this season regardless of the record:
I think just without including 2013 (and) just looking at 2014, I think that we're a much better team at the end of the journey than we were at the beginning. You better be if you're growing in the right ways. I think that we did that individually and collectively over the course of the journey. The growth and the development of young players and the etching out of roles and guys ascending is a part of that. We have a lot of guys that took big positive steps in 2014. As I reflect on the journey that is that season I do feel comfortable about the growth of a lot of men and a lot of things to be proud and be excited about when we move forward at the appropriate time.

What are your thoughts in Le'Veon Bell's interest in playing in the Pro Bowl?
I think first and foremost it's got to be health related. We'll see what his overall health looks like and then make the appropriate judgment for himself. But if it were today, I doubt that he would be healthy enough to participate. But he's got some time.

How would you evaluate Mitchell's performance, injury aside?
I like his performance over the course of the season. I just think big picture wise he's arrow pointed up in terms of his performance as it should (be). As he gets up to speed with not only what we do here but how he fits in it. I thought as the season wore on he got better and particularly over the course of the last month. I was excited about the trajectory of his performance and I am moving forward.

Did Mitchell play better with Will Allen or Troy Polamalu?
I'm less concerned about partners in terms of who he's playing with (laughing). In this game at this level you can't lean on many people (and) particularly back there in the midst of all that grass. His performance is his performance. I think his performance got better as the season wore on regardless of who he was playing with.

Was there anything that facilitated the improvement from September to December?
I just think that the guys had a great approach about getting better on a day-to-day basis. When you got a lot of critical young components that better be an element of it. I think that was probably the chief element of it. I also think that we have some leaders (and) some guys that are out front that make that environment an easier one to create because of how they approach their daily business. Guys like Antonio Brown, guys like Maurkice Pouncey, guys like Cam Heyward are great workers. Not only are they great players, they're great workers. I think that they provide a pretty good compass in leadership for others to follow in regards to bringing the mentality that's geared towards getting better on a daily basis and working.

Re: Spence playing this season and does that bring you any pride and how do you evaluate his play:
I think I've been pretty consistent throughout the Sean Spence thing about my position in terms of what he was capable of, even in disagreement with some people that I work with. I just know a lot about professional athletes. They're not normal. They don't get to this level of competition without having some unique qualities, particularly in the face of adversity, that allow them to overcome. It's not about talent that gets them here. Talent is just an element of it. I think it's will. So I'm never surprised when these guys routinely overcome what is seemingly insurmountable odds. I believe that regarding him then. I've been consistent with it. My tune is not changing. It was a good start for him in terms of getting back on the field, but I would imagine that it's going to be a short period of time. He's going to be working to ascend and he better because that's just the nature of this thing (laughing). The competition is going to continually get stiff and stiffer. We're going to continue to add people to the mix that makes it tough to have a similar role as you had the year before. Not only that, but the people that remain are not going to be the same. I imagine young people that he worked with and competed against from time to time; guys like Ryan Shazier and Vince Williams have a similar mindset in terms of ascending and getting better. That all creates a good, positive environment (and) one that I don't mind pulling the strings on.

In what areas can the offense improve next season?
In all areas. Seriously. If there is a ceiling in this thing it's because you put it on yourself from a perception standpoint. Why can't we, as I sit here today, get better in all areas? Not only offensively but defensively and special teams. It's amazing how we as humans are capable of limiting what we are capable of just simply because we set parameters on our own expectations. I try to consciously not do that. You asked a question what areas can we get better in? My answer is what areas can we not get better in? That needs to be our mentality and hopefully it will be.

Did you like what you saw in Cortez Allen after he was sat down?
I didn't see much from him. His overall health was an element of it. He got his knee scoped a couple of weeks backs. He's a couple weeks post-op from a knee scope that he was dealing with over the course of the season. Obviously the thumb injury was what it was. He's going to write his story in terms of how he responds to that adversity. But it's not unlike a lot of people in this business and particularly at that position. Ike Taylor and I laughed quite a bit about his present circumstance because Ike has been there. The ups and downs associated with playing corner in the NFL (with) promotions, demotions, playing in rhythm, trying to find that rhythm is all part of it. How you respond to the adversity that the game of football or professional football presents you often times defines you and defines your career. He's going to be faced with a stiff challenge in terms of responding to the adversity that he faced this year. I look forward to watching him do that and helping him in any way that I can professionally.

Did Ben Roethlisberger and Heath Miller have a concussion and was protocol followed in their evaluation?
I assure you that proper protocol was followed. We're not into that. That's not how we do business and I'm sure that those guys would relay that to you. During the course of the injuries in the game I wasn't really up to speed with what was going on with them. We had some activity going on the field and I had that level of trust in our medical staff. Not only in terms of their capabilities but their understanding about how we do business. I have no reservations or hesitations in that regard. Really I take offense to the assumption that we would put those guys in harm's way.

Re: The decision to start Ben Tate and did his fumble dictate his usage going forward:
The decision to start him was easy. He's seen a heck of a lot more football than the other candidates over the course of his career. Whether it be the playoff atmosphere and things of that nature and him having been a part of that environment over the course of his career, particularly as a young guy as a Houston Texan and being on some good teams. We just thought that that experience was invaluable and that if he could get up to speed that it would lessen the load of the group if he would absorb some of those first initial snaps of the game and really get us started and allow the other young guys to play into the game. He did a nice job of preparing himself and getting up to speed and being what we desired for him to be. But that also answers the second element of that question. The fumble was irrelevant in regards to that. We were going to start with him and work the other guys in and balance the workload out over the course of the football game. The other guys were in position to know more of our football than him having been here for a longer period of time. We were not going to not acknowledge his overall professional experience and what that means, particularly in terms of getting started in a game like that with the amount of emotions and the atmosphere that encompasses playoff football.

If James Harrison wants to return do you want him back?
I'm going to discuss that with James before I discuss that with you guys and I mean that sincerely. I appreciate what transpired this year. But what transpired this year is not going to have a bearing on how we move forward. I'm just not in position to talk at a great length about anyone in regards to how we move forward at this point. I just think it's appropriate that I do that with them exclusively first and foremost. I will with everybody – players and coaches.

How difficult is it to evaluate Jarvis Jones due to him missing a lot of time to injury?
It's not. Because I just think how you deal with injuries is an element of the evaluation. How susceptible you are to injury is an element of the evaluation. We all are evaluated on all elements on how we perform. Often times and in some instances we have no control over some of the things that happen to us. We have all the control over how we respond and how bounce back. There's a lot to evaluate to the midst of adversity like injuries and significant ones. I would imagine that he knows a lot more about himself as a football player and a professional now than he did prior to that injury. It creates misery, short-term misery, but also an opportunity for big-time growth. It will be interesting to see what that discussion is for him from his perspective and from ours as we move forward with him.

At what point do you sit down with General Manager Kevin Colbert and discuss the salary cap situation?
We started some yesterday. It's continual. That's one of the things that I really enjoy about what I do. It never gets stale. You better love it because the wheels keep turning (laughing). 'Hey, sorry about the season, do you want to talk cap?' That's kind of Kevin's mentality (laughing). Such is the nature of the thing. We're already putting plans and courses in action in terms of how we're going to go about coming shoulder-to-shoulder to evaluate the upcoming talent. East-West (Shrine) game, Senior Bowl, etc. I enjoy that. He does a heck of a job of laying a foundation for me that I can get on the moving train that is evaluation and come alongside him and work. We'll get to that, but rest assured, there's not a lot of lapse time before those discussions happening (laughing).

Does that affect greatly what is discussed in the exit interviews with the players?
No. Largely, again like I said when I started this discussion, those exit interviews need to be focused on summarizing and reflecting on what happened, individually and collectively, to maximize the learning and growth opportunity that is a football season. I think that sometimes you can spend so much time planning and moving forward that you miss the forest from the trees. I think that reflecting and talking about what happened and summarizing and re-living, and in some cases even talking about the experience of others that are close to us, often times you miss what's going on around you when you're living it. There are awesome lessons to be gleaned through the adversity and things of others that maybe some people might miss. Maybe Ryan Shazier misses a story that is a Sean Spence. Maybe if I spend some time summarizing and giving him some background on what transpired before he got here, it can help him deal with the adversity that is professional football (and) the bumps and bruises and injuries and things that are associated with it. I don't want to move too quick and I never do even if it makes settings like this somewhat uncomfortable and less productive than maybe they should be for you guys. We have to summarize. We have to just look at what happened and why and maximize the learning opportunity that is the 2014 season.

Is there a group that didn't get to the level that you wanted it to?
I wanted our return game to be more explosive than what it is if you're talking about that specifically. We warmed up to applying pressure on the quarterback and creating turnovers. Those are two things that good defenses do consistently. I thought we warmed up to that over the big picture of the season. We have to start with a better baseline in that regard if we want to be the type of defense and the team that we desire to be. We always need to protect and do a great job of protecting Ben and having a great balance offensively. I think we evolved to those things. We're never going to move along the process of growth and development as quickly as I like. I understand that. That's human nature. But you asked me to summarize a few things so I gave you a few. There are many. There are more than I'm willing or capable of acknowledging at this point, but that's what this time period is about if we're sincere about learning as much as we can from it.

Did Jason Worilds evolve?
From my perspective he did but he is better equipped to answer that than I am.

Re: Worilds' performance:
From a big picture standpoint I thought he evolved over the course of the season. I thought his arrow was pointing up. I thought he did a nice job for us regardless of what we asked him to do. He was in a leadership position. I thought he came out of his shell a little bit and interacted with younger players and helped them in their growth and their development. There is value in terms of that. I thought it was a productive year.

Re: The benefits of getting a contract done for Ben sooner rather than later:
I am sure there are positives. I am sure there are negatives.

Do you have any inside linebackers that could potentially move to the outside?
There isn't anybody that bowls me over or is seeping with potential as an outside linebacker. There are guys that are capable of providing some quality snaps for us there. But those guys are where they are right now in terms of natural positioning. It doesn't mean I am not going to challenge people to have position flexibility. You know that we do that. You know that we value that. It helps us. Moving away from that approach, but as I sit here today there are no inside linebackers that are seeping with outside linebacker capabilities. I may be surprised, and that's the beautiful thing about it. I know that by the way we approach our business, we will always give guys an opportunity to show flexibility and to prove us wrong in a lot of ways, and we routinely are. And that's okay.

Re: You signed seven guys to future contracts, and three of them were here all season:
They have done enough to proceed.

Re: Motivating Mike Wallace by calling him a 'one-trick pony' and is that something you have done with Martavis Bryant:
I saw growth in him. I am going to stop short of using your words, which are complete. I saw growth in him. And that growth came with snaps. I would imagine he is going to get more opportunities to grow with those snaps. The thing is, he has to continue to grow and have an open mind. He has to acknowledge that he doesn't have all the answers. Sometimes that is seemingly more difficult than it appears. He probably has less anxiety now than he did nine or 10 months ago because there are less unknowns. Sometimes that's a good thing for men, and sometimes that's a bad thing for men. I am going to be watching him very closely as he proceeds.

You are a defensive guy. But are you comfortable with being possibly labeled as an offensive team?
Yes. Absolutely. Because I like to win. The goal is to score one more point than your opponent. If it is low scoring, great. If it is high scoring, great. We are just trying to get out of stadiums with wins. We have to put our own personal agendas behind. The agenda is winning, and winning in the right ways. I like the fact that we have a good, balanced offense with a lot of weapons. That is not a negative. I am not going to make it one.

Does Dick LeBeau want to come back. And will you welcome him back?
Again, I haven't talked to him. I am not going to get into all of that for the many reasons that I have already outlined.

Re: Brad Wing:
I thought he got better. I still think he is capable of being better. He will be given an opportunity to do that. He also may be presented with a challenge that is competition. We will see what this next journey holds for him in that regard.

Is it fair to say based on who is returning on offense that the offseason focus is primarily on defense?
No. We are trying to get better and what all of that entails. Just because we have some outstanding, front-line guys on offense, it doesn't mean that we can't get better. It might be as simple as fortifying depth in some positions. But we aren't going to neglect any element of our team as we try to build it as strong as it can be for 2015.

Is it fair to describe the secondary as the area of greatest concern for next season?
It's fair. You could do it. But again, I am not.

Re: The importance of having a franchise quarterback:
I don't know what defines a franchise quarterback. I hear that term thrown around too often to be quite honest with you. If you follow professional football you would think half the teams in the league have a franchise quarterback, and we all know that's not the case. I try to stay away from those generalizations that we all use to seek comfort and make ourselves feel good about our circumstances. We have a good quarterback. I like him. I would like to keep him.

Re: The flag that was picked up in the Dallas/Detroit game and the possibility to expand coach's challenges:
I didn't watch any football. I kind of heard about it but I still haven't seen it. I am not opposed to expanding the capacity of coaches challenging plays in an effort to get it right. As a coach, obviously I would love that autonomy. I am not opposed to the discussion. I am also into being a part of the solution as opposed to sitting around and complaining about the present state. I have an opportunity to do that because of some of the things that I do with the Competition Committee. I take a great deal of pride in that. I just don't want to sit on the side and be a complainer. I like to be a part of the process. I have been given an opportunity to do that. I look forward in continuing to do that. It's not perfect. We all acknowledge that. We all want to work for perfection. We all acknowledge that maybe perfection is something that is unattainable. But it's not going to stop us from trying. I love professional football. I love the state of it. Can we be better? Certainly. But I want to be a part of the solution as opposed to somebody that sits on the side and complains. That's not my style.

Have those discussions come up in your meetings with the Committee?
It has come up continually because we aren't afraid to ask the uncomfortable questions. I think that it will come up again. Whether or not we choose to advance with the discussion is something that is an element of present circumstance and I would imagine it always will be. I would imagine that some of the things that transpired over the course of this season will change a similar conversation we had a year ago. I am looking forward to being a part of the process. I don't necessarily have hardcore answers on how that process might be, but I also think that is good. I think that we all need to go into it with an open mind about where it could go in an effort to safeguard, protect and advance our game.

2014 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

40TH ANNIVERSARY OF FIRST TITLE

The Steelers celebrated the 40th anniversary of the team's first championship, Super Bowl IX, with a variety of events in 2014.

Super Bowl IX was Pittsburgh's first title game appearence. The team captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in Tulane Stadium.

RB Franco Harris was named the game's MVP with a rushing performance of 158 yards on 34 carries, establishing a new Super Bowl record. Harris gave the Steelers a 9-0 lead in the third quarter on a nine-yard rush.

QB Terry Bradshaw connected with Larry Brown for a four-yard touchdown toss to seal the Steelers' victory.

Some highlights that took place in recognition of the team's Super Bowl IX win during the 2014 season included:

- Super Bowl IX 40th Anniversary Patch: The team wore wear a special patch on their uniform against the New Orleans Saints (Nov. 30).
- November 30th Halftime Ceremony: Players from the Super Bowl IX team were recognized during a halftime ceremony of the Saints game.
- Commemorative Game Ticket Logo: The Steelers printed a separate Super Bowl IX 40th Anniversary logo on game tickets for the November 30th game.
- Alumni Weekend: November 29-30 served as the team's annual Alumni Weekend to celebrate the team's 40th Anniversary victory in Super Bowl IX.
- Alumni Weekend Dinner Gala: On November 29, Heinz Field hosted the Alumni Weekend Dinner Gala with proceeds benefitting the UPMC Sports Medicine Concussion Program and The Cancer Caring Center. Players from the Super Bowl IX Championship team were introduced at the event and shared their stories from the 1974 season.
- 1974 Audio Replays: Replay of audio from the 1974 season and Super Bowl IX, which featured Myron Cope and Jack Fleming, were broadcast on Steelers Nation Radio on Alumni Weekend.

2014 CAPTAINS

The Steelers selected four players to serve as team captains for the 2014 season, the team announced through a vote of their teammates.

QB Ben Roethlisberger served as the offensive captain, S Troy Polamalu served as the defensive captain and S Robert Golden and K Shaun Suisham served as the special teams captains.

Roethlisberger was selected as an offensive captain for the sixth time in his career (2008, '09, '11, '12, '13 and '14). This marked Golden's, Polamalu's and Suisham's first selections as captains.

CHUCK NOLL DAY AND DECAL

Steelers President Art Rooney II announced in July on Steelers Nation Radio that the team would wear helmet decals as part of a season-long commemoration of Chuck Noll's coaching career.

The decals, unveiled on Monday, September 1, were displayed on the team's helmets for the first time during the team's 2014 Week One home opener against the Cleveland Browns, a date designated Chuck Noll Day as the result of bipartisan resolution introduced by Pennsylvania's two United States Senators – Pat Toomey (R-Pa.) and Bob Casey (D-Pa.).

Noll, the only coach to win four Super Bowls (IX, X, XIII and XIV), compiled a 209-156-1 record in 23 seasons at the helm of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1969-1991. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1993.

GREENE NUMBER '75' RETIRED

The Steelers retired Joe Greene's Number '75' in a ceremony on November 2, when the team hosted Baltimore at Heinz Field.

Greene, the leader of the "Steel Curtain" defense during the 1970s, helped lead the team to four Super Bowl victories and six AFC Championship game appearances.

Throughout his 13-year playing career, all with Pittsburgh, Greene earned All-NFL honors five times and all-conference accolades 11 straight years to begin his tenure. He was twice named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 1972 and 1974.

The team's No. 1 draft pick in 1969, Greene quickly emerged in the league as he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year and received the first of his 10 Pro Bowl selections.

Greene was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987 and has been recognized with the following honors:

- All-Time NFL Team (2000)
- NFL 75th Anniversary Team
- Super Bowl Silver Anniversary Team
- 1970s All-Decade Team

Greene's Number '75' has not been issued by the Steelers since his retirement following the 1981 season. He joined Ernie Stautner (No. 70) as the only players in franchise history to officially have their number retired.

After a 13-year playing career, Greene briefly worked as a color analyst for CBS Sports before becoming the Steelers' defensive line coach from 1987-91. He then went on to coach the defensive line for the Miami Dolphins (1992-95) and the Arizona Cardinals (1996-03) before retiring from coaching and moving into the player personnel department with the Steelers. He spent nine years as a special assistant for pro and college personnel for Pittsburgh before retiring in 2013.

STEELERS CLAIM THE NORTH

The Pittsburgh Steelers closed out the 2014 regular season with a perfect 4-0 record in the month of December en route to an 11-5 record to clinch the AFC North division title for the sixth time since NFL realignment in 2002 - the most in the division (Pittsburgh: 6, Baltimore: 4 and Cincinnati: 3).

Pittsburgh is one of the most succesful teams in NFL history. The team's 21 division titles are the most since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 and is tied for the most playoff berths since the merger with 27:

DIVISION TITLES SINCE THE 1970 AFL-NFL MERGER

TEAM	DIVISION TITLES

WILD CARD VS. BALTIMORE

Pittsburgh hosted the Baltimore Ravens in a 2014 AFC Wild Card playoff game at Heinz Field on January 3, falling 30-17, and to 4-4 in Wild Card postseason games in team history (3-2 at home):

PITTSBURGH STEELERS WILD CARD GAME RESULTS

1/8/12	at Denver Broncos	L, 29-23 (OT)
1/3/15	vs. Baltimore Ravens	L, 30-17

The loss was the team's first to Baltimore in their postseason series history (3-1). Pittsburgh is now 33-23 in playoff history (21-10 at home) and 7-4 at Heinz Field in the postseason since the stadium opened in 2001.

Pittsburgh's 30-17 loss vs. the Ravens was the first time the Steelers lost to a divisional opponent in the third meeting of a season in the playoffs (9-1).

TOMLIN IN THE PLAYOFFS

Head Coach Mike Tomlin is only the second coach in NFL history to reach two Super Bowls in his first four seasons as a head coach (Joe Gibbs - Washington Redskins).

The Steelers are 5-4 during the Mike Tomlin era in the postseason, with three of his four losses being by six points or less.

Mike Tomlin is the youngest coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. The following is a look at the youngest head coaches in Super Bowl history:

MISC. STEELERS POSTSEASON NOTES

- In 2005, the Steelers became the first No. 6 seed in NFL history to win the Super Bowl. Since then two other Wild Card teams have gone on to win the Super Bowl ('10 Green Bay, sixth seed and '07 Giants, fifth seed).
- Pittsburgh has played in 56 playoff games, which is second all-time behind Dallas (59).
- The Steelers have won nine of their last 13 postseason games.
- Pittsburgh is 7-4 all-time in the postseason at Heinz Field since the stadium opened in 2001, including winning four of their previous five.
- The Steelers won the AFC Central title a team-record six consecutive seasons from 1974-79. They also won four consecutive division titles from 1994-97.
- The Steelers won a team-record seven consecutive postseason games, including two Super Bowls (IX and X), from Dec. 22, 1974 through Dec. 19, 1976. They won six consecutive postseason games from Dec. 30, 1978 through Jan. 20, 1980, including victories in Super Bowls XIII and XIV.
- The Steelers have been shut out only once in the postseason, during the 1947 Eastern Division Playoff game, Dec. 21, 1947, versus the Philadelphia Eagles. The Steelers and Eagles finished that season with 8-4 records and tied for first place in the Eastern Division. In those days, there was only one NFL Championship Game, so the two Pennsylvania neighbors squared off for the right to face the Chicago Cardinals in the Championship Game. The Eagles won, 21-0, but lost in the Championship Game, 28-21, to the Cardinals, the same franchise the Steelers faced in Super Bowl XLIII.
- The Steelers record for fewest points allowed in a playoff game is five, during a 34-5 win in the 1978 AFC Championship Game versus the Houston Oilers at Three Rivers Stadium, on Jan. 7, 1979. The Steelers allowed a team-high 45 points during a 45-28 AFC Championship Game road loss to the Miami Dolphins on Jan. 6, 1985.
- Pittsburgh has faced 22 different teams in the postseason and has a winning record against 12 of those opponents. The Steelers have split their postseason contests with one team and have a losing record versus nine teams.

STEELERS PLAYOFF OT GAMES

Pittsburgh's most recent playoff game - an overtime loss at Denver in the 2011 Wild Card - was the team's fifth overtime postseason game in franchise history.

The Steelers are 2-3 in those contests (1-3 on the road), with all games being decided by six points or less. All three of the Steelers' overtime losses have come on the road.

STEELERS SUPER BOWL HISTORY

The Steelers are 33-23 (.589) in the postseason, including a 21-10 record at home, a 7-10 mark on the road and a 6-2 record at neutral sites (Super Bowls IX, X, XIII, XIV, XXX, XL, XLIII and XLV).

Pittsburgh has played in the Super Bowl three times since 2005 and the team's eight trips to the Super Bowl are tied for the most in NFL history with the Dallas Cowboys. The Steelers' six wins in the Super Bowl are the most in league history.

The following is a look at Pittsburgh's Super Bowl history:

STEELERS POSTSEASON NOTES

• Owns a 5-4 all-time record in the postseason.
• Became the second head coach in NFL history to reach two Super Bowls in his first four seasons as a head coach.
• Became the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl (Super Bowl XLIII).
• Became just the seventh coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as head coach.

QB BEN ROETHLISBERGER

2014 BY THE NUMBERS

3

CB William Gay set a Steelers single-season record with three interceptions returned for touchdowns in 2014 and led the NFL in the defensive category.

6.0

Pittsburgh tallied a season-high 6.0 sacks vs. Kansas City in Week 16 - the team's first such game since Dec. 23, 2012.

7.5

DE Cam Heyward tied for the lead among Pittsburgh defenders (LB Jason Worilds) with 7.5 sacks - a new single-season high.

7

Pittsburgh won each of its four games in the month of December, extending its December game winning streak to 7 - dating back to Week 15 of 2013 - tied as longest active streak in the NFL (Carolina).

7

WR Martavis Bryant became one of four players in NFL history with at least seven touchdown catches in their first seven games - first to accomplish the feat since 1954 (Harlon Hill & Max McGee).

9TH

The Steelers clinched a playoff berth for the ninth season since 2000 and first since 2011.

12

QB Ben Roethlisberger set an NFL record for the most passing touchdowns in back-to-back games with 12 (Weeks 8-9).

30

Pittsburgh scored 30 or more points in seven games in 2014 - the third such time in franchise history (1975 and 1979).

36

Pittsburgh generated 36 first downs in the team's Week 13 game vs. New Orleans - matching a franchise record (11/25/1979 vs. Cleveland).

56

The Steelers led the NFL with 56 points scored in 'two-minute offense' (drives that begun at two minutes left in Half or less).

106.1

WR Antonio Brown averaged 106.1 receiving yards per game in 2014 - the first Steeler in team history to average 100.0 yards or better per game in a season.

129 / 1,698 / 13

WR Antonio Brown led the NFL with 129 catches and 1,698 receiving yards and tied for second with 13 touchdown catches in 2014 - all single-season Steelers records.

200

RB Le'Veon Bell joined Walter Payton (1977) as only the second player in NFL history to eclipse 200 yards from scrimmage in three straight games (Weeks 11, 13-14).

2014 BY THE NUMBERS

254

RB Le'Veon Bell totaled 254 yards from scrimmage in Week 13 vs. New Orleans - the second-most in team history - and became the first Steeler to tally at least 200 yards in back-to-back games.

264

The Steelers amassed 264 rushing yards in Week 3's win at Carolina - the first time the team rushed for 250 yards or more since Dec. 7, 2006.

309.5

QB Ben Roethlisberger averaged 309.5 passing yards per game - a single-season Steelers record.

411.1

Pittsburgh finished second in the NFL with an average of 411.1 yards of offense per game.

549

WR Martavis Bryant ranked eighth among Steelers rookies in team history with 549 yards in his first season in the NFL.

500

TE Heath Miller eclipsed 500 receiving yards for the eighth consecutive year, joining Hines Ward (1999-2010) to have such a streak in Steelers history.

639

The Steelers produced 639 yards of offense in Week 8's game against Indianapolis - the third-most yards in a game in franchise history - and the fourth 600-plus yard game in team history.

830

RB Le'Veon Bell totaled 830 yards from scrimmage in Games 11-14 this season - tying as the fourth-most in any season's four-game span in NFL history.

1,350 / 850

RB Le'Veon Bell became the second player in NFL history to record at least 1,350 rushing and 850 receiving yards in a season (Marshall Faulk, 1999).

1976

The 2014 Steelers became the first NFL team to have three different players finish in the Top 2 in passing, receiving and scrimmage yards since the 1976 Colts.

1990

RB Le'Veon Bell became the first Steeler since 1990 (Eric Green) to score five touchdowns (of any type) in a season's two-game span in Games 13-14.

2,215

RB Le'Veon Bell's 2,215 yards from scrimmage is a new Steelers single-season record and ranked second-most in the NFL.

BEN ATTACK IN 2014

QB Ben Roethlisberger continued his signifcant performances in 2014. The 11th-year signal caller set team single-season records for passing yards, completions and completion percentage and matched the passing touchdown record.

Roethlisberger eclipsed 300 passing yards in nine games and registered a 100.0 or better passer rating 10 times in 2014 to set Steelers records in both categories.

WHEATON'S CAREER YEAR

WR Markus Wheaton settled in to becoming a target for the Steelers passing attack in 2014, amassing career-highs of 53 catches for 644 yards and two touchdowns while starting 11 of 16 games played.

The second-year wideout opened the season with a career game, setting personal-bests of six receptions for 97 yards in the team's Week 1 30-27 win vs. Cleveland.

Wheaton hauled in the first touchdown catch of his NFL career on an 18-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger during the team's Week 8 win over the Indianapolis Colts.

Against the Baltimore Ravens in Week 9, Wheaton caught two passes for 62 yards along with a 47-yard touchdown. The 47-yard touchdown reception marked the longest catch of his NFL career and his second scoring grab in as many weeks.

MOORE OF THE RECEIVING GAME

WR Lance Moore - a 2014 free agent acquisition of the Pittsburgh Steelers - has been an asset to the team's offense through his veteran leadership and on-field abilities. Moore contributed 14 catches for 198 yards and two touchdowns.

Despite entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the New Orleans Saints in 2006, Moore has sustained a nine-year playing career and totaled 360 receptions for 4,479 yards and 40 touchdowns.

Among active undrafted NFL players, Moore ranks tied for third with 40 touchdown catches, fourth in receptions and sixth in receiving yards:

In his NFL debut vs. Houston in Week 7, Bryant caught a 35-yard touchdown pass to mark his first NFL catch - becoming the first Steelers rookie with a touchdown catch on his first reception since 2007 (Matt Spaeth, Sept. 7).

In Week 8 vs. Indianapolis, he had a career-high five catches for 83 yards and two scores - becoming the first Steeler rookie with a multi-touchdown catch game since 2009.

Against Baltimore in Week 9, Bryant made his first career start and caught three passes for 44 yards with two touchdowns. He became the first Steelers rookie with a touchdown catch in three straight games since 2005 (Heath Miller, four games) and just the second rookie in team history with consecutive multi-touchdown catch games (Eric Green, 1990, Oct. 7-Oct. 14).

Bryant registered the first 100-yard game of his NFL career in Week 10 at New York, capping the day off with 143 yards on four catches which included an 80-yard touchdown reception. His 100-yard game marked the first by a Steelers rookie since 2009 (Mike Wallce, Sept. 27).

The rookie wideout caught four passes for 109 yards with a touchdown catch of 94 yards - the second-longest pass play in team history - in Week 14's game at Cincinnati.

MILLER TIME

TE Heath Miller has been a consistent performer for the Steelers since joining the team as a first-round draft selection in 2005. The tight end caught three passes for 41 yards in Week 17's game vs. Cincinnati to finish the 2014 regular season with 66 catches for 761 yards and three touchdowns.

He tied for the team-lead with seven catches for 68 yards in Week 16 vs. Kansas City.

Miller scored the team's first points in Week 14 at Cincinnati, on a one-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger. The touchdown catch marked the 43rd of his NFL career (all with Pittsburgh) to break a tie for sole possesion of fourth place in Steelers history.

In Week 13 against New Orleans, Miller caught eight passes for 82 yards to mark his fifth game of the season with at least 50 receiving yards, including a 112 yard performance in Week 8 vs. Indianapolis - the third 100-yard game of his NFL career.

Against Tampa Bay in Week 4, Miller registered a single-game career high with 10 receptions for 85 yards and a touchdown.

Miller is the team's all-time leader at tight end for career receptions (529), receiving yards (5,993) and receiving touchdowns (43) while ranking third among all Steelers in receptions and fourth in receiving yards and touchdown catches:

In each of his first 10 years of his career, including 2014, Miller has averaged at least 10.0 yards per catch or better each season.

40

Miller is one of 10 players in team history with 40 career touchdowns and one of five with 40 career receiving scores.

50

Number of regular season games Miller has eclipsed 50 receiving yards - the third-most such games by an active NFL tight end (Antonio Gates: 101 and Jason Witten: 97).

105

Number of consecutive games Miller has caught at least one pass in which he played, dating back to 11/20/08 vs. Cincinnati.

159-of-166

The tight end has hauled in at least one reception in 158-of-165 career games played, including the postseason.

500

Miller has recorded eight consecutive seasons of 500 receiving yards, joining Hines Ward (1999-2010, 12) to have such a streak.

RINGING THE BELL

RB Le'Veon Bell made his name known in 2014 as a running back who provides the dynamic ability to run through open lanes and contribute in the passing game. Bell led Pittsburgh's offense with a single-season team record of 2,215 scrimmage yards and tallied 1,361 rushing yards and eight rushing touchdowns while adding 83 catches for 854 receiving yards and three scores in 2014.

Bell ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in 2014 in:

Before leaving Week 17's game in the third quarter with a knee injury, Bell totaled 100 yards from scrimmage.

Bell sparked Pittsburgh's offense with the team's first touchdown on a one-yard run in Week 16 vs. Kansas City - marking his fifth straight game with a rushing touchdown and tying a career-high of eight in a season. He finished the game with 72 scrimmage yards.

In Week 15 at Atlanta, Bell totaled 119 scrimmage yards and scored two rushing scores - becoming the seventh Steeler to score two rushing touchdowns in consecutive games, first since 2002 (Jerome Bettis).

Bell totaled 235 yards (185 rushing and 50 receiving) and rushed for two scores while adding a touchdown grab in Week 14. He became the sixth Steeler (seventh time) to have two rushing scores and a touchdown catch in the same game.

In Week 13 against New Orleans, Bell produced 254 yards from scrimmage - the second-highest output by a Steeler in team history - and became the first Steeler to record at least 150 receiving (154) and 50 rushing yards (95) in the same game.

At Tennessee on Monday Night in Week 11, Bell had 222 scrimmage yards (204 rushing and 18 receiving) and added a five-yard rushing score. His 204 rushing yards marked the fourth-highest individual performance in a game in Steelers history.

BELL OVER 100 YARDS IN 2014

RB Le'Veon Bell eclipsed 100 yards from scrimmage in 13 games during the 2014 season, one shy of the Steelers single-season record of 14 (Barry Foster, 1992):

BELL AMONG STEELERS BEST IN TWO

RB Le'Veon Bell set a Steelers franchise record for the most yards from scrimmage by a rookie with 1,259 in 2013 - becoming the third rookie in team history to eclipse 1,000 yards from scrimmage.

His 860 rushing yards in his freshman campaign were the second-most and his eight rushing touchdowns tied for the second-most by a Steelers rookie.

Combined with his 1,361 rushing yards in 2014, Bell ranks first in team history in rushing yards in a player's first two seasons in the NFL with the Steelers:

BIG PLAY GAY

CB William Gay intercepted Atlanta QB Matt Ryan in Week 15 and returned the ball 52 yards for a touchdown to mark his third INT-TD of the 2014 season and set a new Steelers single-season record. He also led the Steelers defense with eight tackles and two pass break-ups.

His two other INT-TDs on the season occurred in Week 8 vs. Indianapolis and at Tennessee on Monday Night Football in Week 17.

Gay totaled 64 tackles (54 solo) and led the Pittsburgh defense with 12 pass break-ups.

HEYWARD EMERGES

DE Cameron Heyward produced a career-high and tied for the team lead with 7.5 sacks in 2014, surpassing his 2013 total of 5.0. He is the first Steelers defensive lineman since 2004 (Aaron Smith) to lead or tie for the team lead in sacks in a season.

Heyward closed out the 2014 regular seaon with a sack of Bengals QB Andy Dalton in Week 17.

Along with his first career multi-sack game in Week 16 - first multi-sack game by a Steelers defensive end since Dec. 23, 2012 - Heyward had sacks in back-to-back games for the second time in hs NFL career.

In Week 15 at Cincinnati, Heyward recorded his fifth sack of the season to match a single-season career-high of 5.0 (2013).

Along with sharing the lead for sacks along the Steelers defense in 2014, Heyward's 11 tackles for losses were the most and he led the team's defensive line with 53 tackles (33 solo) to go along with 16 quarterback hits.

The fourth-year defensive end opened the season with a sack of Cleveland QB Brian Hoyer.

In Week 2 at Baltimore, Heyward led the team's defensive line with seven tackles (two solo) and added his third sack in Week 6 at Cleveland.

TOUGH ON ROOKIE QBS

Since Defensive Coordinator Dick LeBeau returned to the Steelers in 2004, the Steelers have had tremendous success against rookie quarterbacks.

Including the postseason, the Steelers are 19-2 against teams that start a rookie quarterback. In those 21 contests, rookie quarterbacks have combined for 3,696 passing yards with 12 touchdowns and 25 interceptions, a completion percentage of 54.4 (356-655) and a passer rating of 61.1.

TROY BEING TROY

S Troy Polamalu has made a career of making plays on defense. He has done it so well that he has been selected Defensive Player of the Year once and All-Pro six times by the Associated Press (four first-team and two second-team selections), as well as chosen to eight Pro Bowls, including being selected for his perfomance in 2013.

Polamalu made an impact on the Steelers' defense in Week 1 against Cleveland - leading the unit with 11 tackles (six solo). On Monday Night in Week 7, he recovered his first fumble of the season and seventh of his NFL career. In Week 8 vs. Indianapolis, Polamalu tied for the team-lead with six tackles and added a forced fumble - the 13th of his NFL career.

His 61 tackles (40 solo) were good for fourth-most on the Steelers defense in 2014, while adding five tackles for losses.

He finished 2013 with 85 tackles - surpassing 80 for the eighth time in his NFL career - finishing third on the Steelers defense. He also contributed two sacks and set a career-high of five forced fumbles.

For only the third time in his NFL career, Polamalu registered at least one sack, an interception, one forced fumble and a fumble recovery in the same regular season:

2013	2.0	2	5	1
2010	1.0	7	1	1
2005	3.0	2	1	2

In Week 14 against Miami, Polamalu returned an interception 19 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. It was his third career interception return for a touchdown during the regular season, which tied Dwayne Woodruff, Carnell Lake, Deshea Townsend and Tony Campagno for the fourth-most in franchise history (Chad Scott, 4; Jack Butler, 4; Rod Woodson, 5).

His fifth career defensive touchdown tied Carnell Lake, Dwayne Woodruff and Jack Butler for the second-most in team history:

IT'S WORILDS' WORLD

LB Jason Worilds tied for the lead on Pittsburgh's defense with 7.5 sacks in 2014 to go along with 59 tackles (39 solo) and a team-high 18 quarterback hits and 10 tackles for losses.

Worilds was credited with 2.0 sacks in Week 16's game vs. Kansas City - his second multi-sack game of the season and sixth of his NFL career.

In Week 10 at the New York Jets, Worilds recorded 1.5 sacks.

Against Baltimore on Sunday Night Football in Week 9, Worilds picked off Baltimore QB Joe Flacco to mark the first interception of his NFL career.

He forced his fourth career fumble on Monday Night Football against Houston in Week 7 which was recovered by fellow LB Sean Spence.

HARRISON'S RETURN

LB James Harrison, who announced his retirement on September 5, returned to the Steelers for a 12th season in the NFL (11th with Pittsburgh: 2002, 2004-12 and 2013 with Cincinnati).

Harrison recorded 5.5 sacks in 2014, including three multi-sack games - Week 16 vs. Kansas City (1.5) and 2.0 in Weeks 8 and 9 - increasing his totals to 69.5 in his tenure with Steelers - and 71.5 in his NFL career.

His 69.5 quarterback takedowns are the second most by a Steeler since sacks became an official statistic in 1982:

MOATS MAKES HIS MARK

LB Arthur Moats - a 2014 free agent acquisition by the Steelers - made his mark in Week 14's game at Cincinnati. Moats brought down Cincinnati QB Andy Dalton twice to mark the first multi-sack game of his NFL career and added a forced fumble and fumble recovery.

The fifth-year linebacker appeared in each of the team's 16 games, making 10 starts in 2014 and set a single-season career-high with 4.0 sacks while contributing 23 tackles (17 solo), six quarterback hits, four tackles for losses, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

TIMMONS TIME

LB Lawrence Timmons led the Steelers defense with 132 tackles (87 solo) in 2014 - his third straight 100 tackle season (fourth of his career).

His 132 tackles in 2014 placed him second in the AFC (seventh in the NFL):

Timmons recorded double-digit tackles in seven games this season, including a team-best 13 in Week 10 and Week 16.

Timmons, who has missed only two games his entire career, started his team-leading 69th consecutive regular-season game in Week 17 vs. Cincinnati.

Since the start of the 2010 season, Timmons has started (79) and played in (80) the most games out of any Steelers' linebacker, while also leading the group in tackles over that time.

TIMMONS' DIGITS

10

Timmons led Pittsburgh's defense with 13 total tackles (9 solo) in Week 16. He has registered double digit tackles in 33 games during his career, including 20 times since the start of the 2012 season.

In Week 8 of the 2013 season, Timmons forced a fumble that was recovered by Pittsburgh at the Oakland 11-yard line early in the fourth quarter. It was the 10th forced fumble of his career.

20 (17)

His tackles (20) and solo tackles (17) in a victory over Baltimore in Week 7 in 2013 were both career highs.

100

Timmons' team and career-high 155 tackles in 2013 marked the third time in the last four seasons (2010 and 2012) that he eclipsed 100 tackles.

SHAZIER IN ROOKIE CAMPAIGN

Pittsburgh's 2014 first round draft selection - LB Ryan Shazier - became the first rookie linebacker to start on Kickoff Weekend for the Steelers since 2001 (Kendrell Bell) and joined Bell and Jack Lambert (1974) as only the third defensive rookie in Pittsburgh history since 1974 to earn the nod in a season opener.

In his NFL debut in Week 1 vs. Cleveland, he totaled six tackles (five solo) to go along with a stop for a loss and a pass defensed.

Shazier finished with 11 tackles in Week 2's game and had three solo stops at Carolina in Week 3 before leaving the game.

The Ohio State product returned to the field in Week 8 with a start against Indianapolis and posted four tackles (two solo) with a quarterback hit. Despite playing in nine games in 2014, Shazier ranked 13th among rookie linebackers with 36 total tackles.

OH SO SUISHAM

K Shaun Suisham set a personal single-season high with 132 points in 2014 - the third most in a season in team history - converting 29-of-32 field goal attempts and each of his 45 extra point tries.

His 132 points in 2014 placed him fourth in the AFC among kickers:

In Week 14 in Cincinnati, Suisham had 10 points, connecting on each of his two field goal tries and four extra point attempts.

In Week 2, Suisham connected on two field goal tries - a 25- and 43-yard attempt. With his second field goal of the game, Suisham became the fifth player in Steelers history to record 100 field goals made.

Suisham lifted the Steelers to a 30-27 victory on Kickoff Weekend after converting a 41-yard field goal as time expried against Cleveland. The game winnning kick marked the ninth of Suisham's NFL career and seventh as a Steeler. He went three-for-three on the day.

At the New York Jets in Week 10, Suisham converted a 53-yard field goal attempt to establish a new career-long and tie as the fourth-longest field goal made in Steelers history.

Since joining the Steelers in 2010, Suisham has made 124-of-141 field goal attempts and each of his 173 point after tries for 545 points.

Suisham ranks first in team history with an 87.9 field goal conversion mark and his 124 field goals made place him fourth in team history:

Preseason Game #1
New York Giants 20, Pittsburgh 16
Aug. 9, 2014
MetLife Stadium (74,611)

EAST RUTHERFORD – QB Curtis Painter threw a game-winning three-yard touchdown pass to WR Corey Washington with less than three minutes remaining to lift the Giants to a 20-16 victory over the Steelers in the 2014 preseason opener.

On the Steelers first drive of the contest, rookie WR/RB Dri Archer caught a pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger and raced 46 yards into Giants' territory. The drive was capped off by a 26-yard field goal by K Shaun Suisham to give Pittsburgh an early 3-0 lead.

But on the first play of New York's ensuing possession, RB Rashad Jennings scored on a 73-yard run to give the Giants a 7-3 advantage.

New York increased their lead 10-3 early in the second quarter on K Josh Brown's 45-yard field goal. And with less than one minute remaining in the first half, the Giants increased their lead to 13-3 on K Brandon McManus' 46-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored 13 unanswered points for its first lead of the game. Suisham connected from 38 yards out midway through the third quarter and from 32 yards out early in the fourth quarter to cut the Giants' lead 13-9.

The Steelers got a splash play from rookie LB Howard Jones as he scooped up a Giants' fumble and returned it 28 yards for a touchdown to give Pittsburgh a 16-13 advantage.

On the Giants' next drive, Painter led the team on a 12-play, 80-yard drive that he capped off with the game-winning touchdown pass.

Preseason Game #2
Pittsburgh 19, Buffalo 16
Aug. 16, 2014
Heinz Field (50,434)

PITTSBURGH – K Shaun Suisham connected on a 20-yard field goal as time expired to give the Steelers a 19-16 victory over the Buffalo Bills in the preseason home opener at Heinz Field.

The game-winning kick was set up by a big play from the Steelers' defense, as LB Vic So'oto sacked and stripped Buffalo QB Jeff Tuel and the fumble was picked up and returned to the Bills one-yard line by LB Howard Jones.

The Bills took an early 3-0 lead on K Dan Carpenter's 37-yard field goal. But on the second play of the Steelers' ensuing drive, WR Antonio Brown caught a pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger and took it 76 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 6-3 lead, followed by a missed extra point attempt.

Pittsburgh scored another touchdown on its next drive, punching it in on a third-and-11 play from the Bills' 16-yard line. Roethlisberger found WR Markus Wheaton in the corner of the end zone to give the Steelers a 13-3 advantage by the end of the first quarter.

Carpenter booted a 53-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Buffalo its second score of the contest, and the Steelers went into halftime with a 13-6 lead.

Midway through the third quarter, QB Landry Jones was sacked and stripped by DT Stefan Charles and DT Landon Cohen returned it 59 yards to the Pittsburgh 16-yard line. Buffalo capped off the drive with a one-yard score by RB Anthony Dixon to tie the game 13-13.

Suisham booted a 48-yarder in the fourth quarter to give Pittsburgh a 16-13 advantage. Carpenter though would tie the game with a 44-yarder of his own at the two minute.

After a Pittsburgh turnover, the Bills took over at their own 29-yard line. But with 31 seconds remaining, So'oto and Jones made a splash play to set up the game-winning kick.

Preseason Game #3
Philadelphia 31, Pittsburgh 21
Aug. 21, 2014
Lincoln Financial Field (69,144)

PHILADELPHIA – The Steelers couldn't keep up with the high-paced Philadelphia offense and fell to the Eagles, 31-21, at Lincoln Financial Field.

The Eagles scored the first 17 points of the contest. Philadelphia began its scoring with a 22-yard screen pass for a touchdown from QB Nick Foles to RB LeSean McCoy midway through the first quarter. Early in the second quarter RB Darren Sproles scored on a one-yard touchdown run. And with less than a minute remaining in the half, K Alex Henery connected on a 36-yard field goal. The Eagles outgained the Steelers 251-96 in the first half.

Early in the third quarter, RB Matthew Tucker scored on a one-yard run to give Philadelphia a 24-0 lead. But on the Steelers' ensuing drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger engineered a six-play, 79-yard drive that he capped off with a 27-yard touchdown pass to TE Heath Miller.

The Eagles scored from one-yard out to increase Philadelphia's lead to 31-7 on their ensuing possession.

Pittsburgh managed to score two fourth quarter touchdowns, both from throws by QB Bruce Gradkowski. He connected with WR Darrius Heyward-Bey on a 33-yard strike and then with rookie WR Martavis Bryant on a three-yard completion to give Pittsburgh its final points of the contest. Gradkowski finished 8-of-11 for 105 yards with two touchdowns.

Preseason Game #4
Carolina 10, Pittsburgh 0
Aug. 28, 2014
Heinz Field (43,514)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers' offense struggled to move the football throughout the game and were shut out by the Carolina Panthers 10-0 in the 2014 preseason finale at Heinz Field.

The Panthers scored on their opening drive of the contest, as the team went 62 yards on 14 plays. K Graham Gano connected on a 33-yard field goal to give Carolina an early 3-0 lead, which was the score heading into halftime.

LB Jarvis Jones stalled a Carolin drive by scooping up a fumble but the ensuing Pittsburgh possession resulted in a punt. Despite good numbers from QB Landry Jones, who finished the first half 10-of-13 for 69 yards, the team failed to convert a third-down.

Carolina scored on their opening drive of the second half, going 90 yards on just six plays. RB Fozzy Whittaker scored on a two-yard run to give the Panthers the 10-0 victory. Whittaker finished with a game-high 91 rushing yards.

Though Pittsburgh outrushed Carolina 106-100, the Panthers defense recorded six sacks and held the Steelers to just 185 net yards.

Game #1
Pittsburgh 30, Cleveland 27
Sept. 7, 2014
Heinz Field (64,598)

PITTSBURGH – K Shaun Suisham connected on a 41-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 30-27 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the 2014 season opener at Heinz Field. It marked the ninth time Suisham converted a game-winning field goal in his career and seventh as a Steeler.

Suisham booted a 36-yard field goal on the Steelers' opening drive of the contest to give the team an early 3-0 lead. Cleveland though would tie the game, 3-3, on its ensuing drive with a 39-yard field goal by K Billy Cundiff.

Pittsburgh though would score 24 straight points to take a commanding 27-3 lead at halftime. RB LeGarrette Blount scored on a seven-yard run late in the first quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 35-yard touchdown early in the second quarter. Then RB Le'Veon Bell scored on a 38-yard run. Suisham capped off the half with a 34-yard field goal as time expired.

Like Pittsburgh, Cleveland scored 24 unanswered points to open up the second half. Rookie RB Isaiah Crowell scored on back-to-back drives, rushing into the end zone from three yards out and then 15 yards out on the following drive. Cundiff then connected on a 25-yard field goal. And QB Brian Hoyer threw a nine-yard touchdown to WR Travis Benjamin to tie the game 27-27.

With less than two minutes to go, the Steelers' defense forced a three-and-out and the Browns punted to the Pittsburgh 43-yard line. Roethlisberger then led the team on a five-play, 33-yard drive to set up Suisham's game winning kick.

It marked the 31st time Roethlisberger led the team on a fourth-quarter game-winning drive in the regular season for his career. He finished the game with 365 passing yards, marking the 29th time he eclipsed the 300-yard mark in the regular season.

For the fifth time since 1991, the Steelers generated 300 or more total net yards in the first half (364) and for the first time since the 2009 season the team recorded 490 or more total net yards in a single game (490).

Game #2
Baltimore 26, Pittsburgh 6
Sept. 11, 2014
M&T Bank Stadium (71,181)

BALTIMORE – The Baltimore Ravens defeated the Steelers, 26-6, at M&T Bank Stadium on Thursday Night Football.

Pittsburgh marched into Ravens' territory on its opening drive of the contest before the drive was stalled at the Baltimore 16-yard line due to a fumble recovered by the defense. QB Joe Flacco then led his team on a 12-play, 85-yard drive that he capped off with a two-yard touchdown pass to TE Owen Daniels to give the Ravens a 7-0 lead.

K Justin Tucker connected on a 30-yard field goal midway through the second quarter to increase Baltimore's lead 10-0. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 25-yard field goal late in the second quarter and the teams entered halftime with Baltimore leading 10-3.

Suisham added a 43-yarder early in the third quarter to cut the lead 10-6, but it would be the last points Pittsburgh would score. On the Ravens' ensuing possession, Flacco led the team on a 12-play, 80-yard drive and he capped it off with another touchdown pass to Daniels, this time a one-yarder, to give Baltimore a 17-6 lead.

The Ravens' defense forced two fourth quarter turnovers to close the door on a Pittsburgh comeback. Tucker added three fourth quarter field goals, from 23 yards, 22 yards and 20 yards to give Baltimore its final points of the contest.

Game #3
Pittsburgh 37, Carolina 19
Sept. 21, 2014
Bank of America Stadium (73,945)

CHARLOTTE – Pittsburgh won its first road contest of the 2014 season in dominating fashion with a 37-19 win at Carolina. It marked the Steelers fifth straight win against the Panthers.

K Graham Gano connected on a 40-yard field goal midway through the first quarter to give Carolina a 3-0 lead. The Steelers responded with three straight field goals as K Shaun Suisham connected from 42, 24 and 45 yards out to give Pittsburgh a 9-3 advantage at halftime.

In the second half, Pittsburgh scored 28 points thanks to splash plays from the offense, defense and special teams. On the Panthers first drive of the third quarter, LB Jarvis Jones sacked and stripped QB Cam Newton, and the fumble was recovered by LB Jason Worilds. Five plays later, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a seven-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 16-3 lead.

Gano made a 40-yard field goal on Carolina's ensuing drive. Pittsburgh responded on its next drive when RB Le'Veon Bell had an 81-yard rush to Carolina's 11-yard line. It marked the first 80-yard rush for Pittsburgh since the 2005 season. Roethlisberger found Brown again from seven yards out to give the Steelers a 23-6 advantage.

The Panthers cut the lead 23-13 on Newton's 37-yard touchdown pass to TE Greg Olsen and forced the Steelers to punt on Pittsburgh's ensuing drive. But S Shamarko Thomas forced a fumble on the punt that was recovered by S Robert Golden in the endzone for a touchdown to give Pittsburgh a 30-13 lead.

The Steelers added seven more points on RB LeGarrette Blount's eight-yard touchdown run to give Pittsburgh a 37-13 advantage. QB Derek Anderson connected with WR Kelvin Benjamin on a 35-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter to give Carolina its final points of the game.

For the first time since 1986, the Steelers had two running backs (Bell and Blount) each rush for 100 yards in the same contest.

Game #4
Tampa Bay 27, Pittsburgh 24
Sept. 28, 2014
Heinz Field (62,910)

PITTSBURGH – QB Mike Glennon threw a game-winning five-yard touchdown pass to WR Vincent Jackson with seven seconds left to give the Buccaneers a 27-24 victory at Heinz Field.

On the Steelers opening drive of the game the Buccaneers got after QB Ben Roethlisberger, sacking him on consecutive plays. On third-and-16, DE Michael Johnson sacked and stripped Roethlisberger and the fumble was recovered by Tampa Bay. Two plays later, Glennon threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to WR Mike Evans to give Tampa Bay a 7-0 lead.

The Buccaneers forced the Steelers to punt on their next possession. Tampa Bay capped off that drive with a 50-yard field goal by K Patrick Murray to increase their lead 10-0. Pittsburgh responded on their next possession driving 73 yards on 10 plays. K Shaun Suisham nailed a 25-yard field goal to cut the lead 10-3.

The Steelers then scored two straight touchdowns thanks to Roethlisberger and WR Antonio Brown. Roethlisberger and Brown connected on an 11-yard score and then a 27-yard score to give Pittsburgh a 17-10 lead going into halftime.

Tampa Bay marched 80 yards on eight plays on its opening drive of the second half. RB Doug Martin scored on a three-yard run to tie the game 17-17. But the Steelers scored a touchdown on their next drive when Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a five-yard touchdown to give Pittsburgh another seven-point advantage, 24-17.

Early in the fourth quarter, Murray made a 27-yard field goal to put Tampa Bay within four points, 24-20. It appeared that the Buccaneers would take the lead right after the two-minute warning. But the Steelers held the Buccaneers on fourth-and-10 from the Pittsburgh 14-yard line.

Tampa Bay though forced the Steelers to punt and took over with 40 seconds remaining and no timeouts. On second-and-10, Glennon found WR Louis Murphy for a 41-yard completion which set up Glennon's game-winning throw to Jackson.

Game #5
Pittsburgh 17, Jacksonville 9
Oct. 5, 2014
Everbank Field (66,198)

JACKSONVILLE – CB Brice McCain returned a Blake Bortles interception 22 yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter to lift the Steelers to a 17-9 victory over the Jaguars at Everbank Field.

Jacksonville got on the board midway through the first quarter with K Josh Scobee's 43-yard field goal. Early in the second quarter K Shaun Suisham connected on a 24-yard field goal to tie the game 3-3.

Pittsburgh took the lead for good right after the two-minute warning in the first half when QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Michael Palmer for a one-yard touchdown. The touchdown capped off a 10-play, 70-yard drive and was Palmer's first career touchdown as a Steeler.

Jacksonville cut the lead 10-9 by the end of the third quarter on Scobee's two made field goals (35 and 36 yards), and the team got a splash play on defense when the Steelers were driving. With the Steelers at the Jaguars' 13-yard line, Roethlisberger was sacked and stripped and the fumble was recovered by DL Andre Branch.

But on the Jaguars second play of their ensuing drive, Bortles was picked off by McCain and he returned it for a score to seal the victory for Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh's defense held the Jaguars to less than 100 rushing yards, the first time since 2012 that the Steelers held three straight opponents to less than 100 rushing yards.

Game #6
Cleveland 31, Pittsburgh 10
Oct. 12 2014
FirstEnergy Stadium (67,431)

CLEVELAND – The Browns scored three second quarter touchdowns en route to a 31-10 victory against the Steelers at FirstEnergy Stadium.

The Steelers rushed for 57 yards in the first quarter and the defense held the Browns to (-8) net yards for the opening quarter. Pittsburgh took a 3-0 lead midway through the first quarter on K Shaun Suisham's 20-yard field goal. On the Steelers ensuing drive, the team lined up for another field goal attempt but the snap was fumbled.

Cleveland then scored 31 unanswered points. RB Isaiah Crowell scored on a five yard run. QB Brian Hoyer connected with TE Jordan Cameron on a 51-yard touchdown. And RB Ben Tate scored from eight yards out to give Cleveland a 21-3 lead at halftime.

Midway through the third quarter, K Billy Cundiff connected on a 40-yard field goal to increase the Browns lead to 24-3. CB Buster Skrine intercepted QB Ben Roethlisberger on the Steelers' ensuing drive which set up Cleveland in Pittsburgh territory. Seven plays later, Tate scored from one-yard out to give Cleveland it's final points of the contest.

The Steelers did manage to score late in the game when Roethlisberger threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to WR Lance Moore.

RB Le'Veon Bell totaled 105 scrimmage yards to become the first player in team history to record 100 scrimmage yards in each of the first six games of a season.

Game #7
Pittsburgh 30, Houston 23
Oct. 20, 2014
Heinz Field (56,375)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers' offense scored three touchdowns in a span of 73 seconds late in the first half to help lift the team to a 30-23 victory over the Houston Texans at Heinz Field on Monday Night Football.

Pittsburgh got off to a slow start and fell behind 13-0. Houston opened the scoring as QB Ryan Fitzpatrick threw and 11-yard touchdown pass to RB Alfred Blue and K Randy Bullock connected on two field goals (39, 38).

K Shaun Suisham connected on a 44-yard field goal to give Pittsburgh its first points of the contest late in the second quarter. After forcing Houston to punt, Pittsburgh took over and scored a touchdown in just two plays. QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with rookie WR Martavis Bryant on a 35-yard touchdown to cut the lead 13-10.

The Steelers defense then created two splash plays and the offense capitalized on Houston's mistakes. First, RB Arian Foster was stripped by LB Jason Worilds on the Texans' three-yard line. On the Steelers first play of their ensuing drive, WR Antonio Brown threw a three-yard touchdown to WR Lance Moore.

On Houston's following possession, Fitzpatrick's pass was batted into the air and picked off by DE Brett Keisel. The Steelers took over in Texans' territory again and Roethlisberger found RB Le'Veon Bell for a two-yard touchdown to increase the lead 24-13.

Suisham added two fourth quarter field goals (30, 40) to increase Pittsburgh's lead to 30-16. The Texans scored a late touchdown but their onside kick attempt was recovered by Pittsburgh to end the game.

Game #8
Pittsburgh 51, Indianapolis 34
Oct. 26, 2014
Heinz Field (62,479)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger had a game for the ages as he threw for a team record 522 yards and a team record six passing touchdowns to help guide the Steelers to a 51-34 win against the Colts at Heinz Field.

K Adam Vinatieri made a 31-yard field goal on the Colts first drive of the game to give Indianapolis the early 3-0 lead. Pittsburgh responded with 21 unanswered points. Roethlisberger connected with WR Markus Wheaton for an 18-yard touchdown and then with WR Martavis Bryant for a five-yard score. And then CB William Gay stepped in front of an Andrew Luck throw and returned it 33 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 21-3 lead.

Indianapolis cut the lead 21-10 when Luck connected with TE Dwayne Allen for a 21-yard touchdown. Roethlisberger then capped off Pittsburgh's next two drives with touchdown throws to WR Antonio Brown. The first touchdown was from eight yards out and the second one was from 47 yards out to give Pittsburgh a 35-10 advantage.

Luck connected with WR T.Y. Hilton for a 28-yard touchdown and Vinatieri made a 23-yard field goal as the halftime whistle sounded, and the teams went into halftime with Pittsburgh leading 35-20.

Roethlisberger and Bryant connected for a two-yard touchdown early in the third quarter to give Pittsburgh a 42-20 advantage. Indianapolis then scored two straight times to get within eight points. RB Ahmad Bradshaw scored on a 12-yard run and Luck threw a 31-yard touchdown to WR Donte Moncrief to cut the lead to 42-34.

Early in the fourth quarter the Colts forced a Steelers turnover as Pittsburgh was in the red zone. But Luck tripped and was called for a penalty in the end zone and the play resulted in a safety. Leading 44-34, Roethlisberger led the team on a 12-play, 67-yard drive that he capped off with his sixth touchdown of the game, an 11-yard pass to TE Heath Miller.

Game #9
Pittsburgh 43, Baltimore 23
Nov. 2, 2014
Heinz Field (63,971)

PITTSBURGH – For the second consecutive game, QB Ben Roethlisberger threw six touchdown passes to guide his team to victory, this one a 43-23 win against the Baltimore Ravens at Heinz Field. Roethlisberger's 12 passing touchdowns in a two-game span is a new NFL record.

The Ravens scored early in the first quarter when QB Joe Flacco connected with WR Torrey Smith on a 35-yard touchdown to give Baltimore a 7-0 lead. Pittsburgh tied the game, 7-7, midway through the second quarter when Roethlisberger threw a five-yard touchdown pass to RB Le'Veon Bell.

The Steelers defense forced two Ravens turnovers in the second quarter and Pittsburgh capitalized with touchdowns on the team's ensuing posessions. Roethlisberger found WR Martavis Bryant for a 19-yard score to give Pittsburgh a 14-7 lead. K Justin Tucker made a 46-yard field goal to cut the Steelers lead to 14-10.

Roethlisberger then threw a 47-yard touchdown to WR Markus Wheaton to give Pittsburgh a 22-10 lead heading into halftime. It marked Wheaton's longest reception of his career.

After a scoreless third quarter, Roethlisberger connected with WR Antonio Brown on a 54-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter to give Pittsburgh a 29-10 advantage. But on Baltimore's ensuing drive, WR Jacoby Jones returned a kickoff 108 yards for a touchdown to get Baltimore back within 12 points.

Roethlisberger and Bryant connected again, this time from 18 yards out to give the Steelers a 36-17 advantage. Flacco and TE Crockett Gillmore connected on a one-yard score with less than three minutes to go to cut the lead to 36-23.

But on the Steelers next drive, Roethlisberger threw his sixth and final touchdown pass, this one a 33-yarder to TE Matt Spaeth to seal the victory for Pittsburgh.

Game #10
New York Jets 20, Pittsburgh 13
Nov. 9, 2014
MetLife Stadium (78,160)

EAST RUTHERFORD – Pittsburgh could not overcome a 17-0 first quarter deficit and four turnovers and lost to the Jets, 20-13, at MetLife Stadium.

The Jets ate up nearly eight minutes of clock time on their first drive of the game. After marching 72 yards on 14 plays, K Nick Folk converted a 23-yard field goal to give New York a 3-0 lead.

Pittsburgh was forced to punt on their first possession of the game. On the very first play of the Jets' ensuing drive, QB Michael Vick threw a 67-yard touchdown to WR T.J. Graham to give the Jets a 10-0 lead.

WR Antonio Brown fumbled on the Steelers' next drive, and the Jets took over in Steelers' territory. Five plays later, Vick found TE Jace Amaro for a five yard touchdown to give New York a 17-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers marched into the redzone on their first drive of the second quarter but QB Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted near the goal line. Late in the second quarter, Folk missed a 45-yard field goal. Roethlisberger then led the team into Jets' territory. K Shaun Suisham nailed a career-long 53-yard field goal as the halftime whistle sounded to cut the Jets' lead 17-3.

Roethlisberger was again picked off on the Steelers' opening drive of the second half. Midway through the third quarter, Folk converted a 30-yard field goal to give the Jets a 20-3 lead.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Suisham missed a 23-yard field goal. But Suisham connected on a 27-yarder midway through the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 20-6. Roethlisberger threw an 80-yard touchdown to WR Martavis Bryant with 1:28 left to go in the game.

The Steelers' onside kick attempt though was recovered by the Jets, who then ran out the clock for the victory.

Game #11
Pittsburgh 27, Tennessee 24
Nov. 17, 2014
LP Field (69,143)

NASHVILLE – The Steelers overcame an 11-point fourth quarter deficit to beat the Titans 27-24 on Monday Night Football at LP Field.

Pittsburgh got off to a fast start, scoring twice in the first five minutes of the game. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 49-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead. And on the Steelers' first defensive snap, CB William Gay intercepted QB Zach Mettenberger and returned it 28 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 10-0 lead.

Tennesssee responded with a 67-yard drive that was capped off by a nine-yard touchdown run by RB Bishop Sankey. Suisham made a 23-yard field goal near the end of the first quarter to give Pittsburgh a 13-7 lead.

The Titans scored 17 unanswered points to take a 24-13 lead into the fourth quarter. First, K Ryan Succop connected on a 20-yard field goal. Then with less than one minute left in the half, Mettenberger connected with WR Nate Washington on an 80-yard touchdown.

Late in the third quarter, Mettenberger connected with TE Chase Coffman for a four-yard touchdown to give the Titans an 11-point advantage heading into the fourth quarter.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, RB Le'Veon Bell scored on a five-yard run. And on the Steelers next drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Brown to seal the victory for the Steelers. It marked Roethlisberger's 32nd career fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drive of his career in the regular season.

Pittsburgh's defense limited the Titans' chances in the fourth quarter and the Steelers used a heavy dose of Bell to run out the clock. For the game, Bell totaled 206 rushing yards, the fourth-highest total in team history for a single game.

Game #12
New Orleans 35, Pittsburgh 32
Nov. 30, 2014
Heinz Field (61,916)

PITTSBURGH – Saints QB Drew Brees threw five touchdown passes to lift his team to a 35-32 victory against the Steelers at Heinz Field.

The Steelers dominated time of possession for the first quarter and a half but only managed to put six points on the board thanks to K Shaun Suisham's 49 and 31-yard makes.

Midway through the second quarter, Brees connected with TE Benjamin Watson for a 15-yard touchdown. And with less than one minute remaining in the half, Brees threw a four-yard touchdown pass to FB Erik Lorig to give the Saints a 14-6 lead heading into the break.

New Orleans scored on their first drive of the second half as Brees found WR Nick Toon for an 11-yard touchdown. Pittsburgh's ensuing drive ended with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Le'Veon Bell to cut the Saints' lead 21-13. Bell recorded a career-best 159 receiving yards and totaled a career-high 254 yards from scrimmage.

But on the Saints' next possession, Brees threw a 69-yard touchdown pass to WR Kenny Stills to give New Orleans a 28-13 advantage at the end of the third quarter.

Suisham connected on a 47-yarder early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 28-16. But Brees led his team right down the field and threw a three-yard touchdown pass to WR Marques Colston to give New Orleans a 35-16 lead.

QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with WR Antonio Brown on a four-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter, and then the two connected again on a three-yard score as time expired. Roethlisberger threw for a game-high 435 yards and set the team's single-game record with 58 pass attempts.

Game #13
Pittsburgh 42, Cincinnati 21
Dec. 7, 2014
Paul Brown Stadium (65,512)

CINCINNATI – The Steelers scored 25 fourth quarter points to beat the Bengals 42-21 at Paul Brown Stadium.

After a scoreless first quarter, Pittsburgh took a 7-0 lead when QB Ben Roethlisberger connected with TE Heath Miller for a one-yard touchdown. Cincinnati tied the game 7-7 on their ensuing possession when QB Andy Dalton found TE Jermaine Gresham for a 10-yard touchdown pass.

Dalton scored on a 20-yard run late in the second quarter to give Cincinnati a 14-7 advantage. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 22-yard field goal right before halftime to cut the Bengals lead to 14-10 at the break.

Midway through the third quarter, RB Le'Veon Bell caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to give Pittsburgh its first lead of the game, 17-14. The Bengals scored on their next drive to take a 21-17 lead but it would be the last they would score.

Suisham nailed a 44-yarder to cut the lead 21-20, and on the Bengals' next possession, LB Arthur Moats recovered a fumble to set the Steelers up in Cincinnati territory. Four plays later, Bell scored from 13 yards out to give Pittsburgh a 28-21 lead.

Midway through the fourth quarter, the Steelers took over at their own six-yard line. On the very first play, Roethlisberger connected with WR Martavis Bryant on a 94-yard touchdown pass. It marked the second-longest pass play in team history.

Bell's 22-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter marked his second score of the game and it sealed the victory for the Steelers. Bell totaled 235 yards from scrimmage in the contest to give him three straight games with 200 yards from scrimmage. He became just the second player in NFL history (Walter Payton) to record at least 200 yards from scrimmage in three straight games.

Game #14
Pittsburgh 27, Atlanta 20
Dec. 14, 2014
Georgia Dome (71,161)

ATLANTA – CB William Gay's 52-yard interception return for a touchdown in the second quarter gave the Steelers a 13-0 lead and the team held off the Falcons' late rally for a 27-20 victory at the Georgia Dome.

K Shaun Suisham made two first quarter field goals, both from 38 yards out, to give the Steelers a 6-0 lead at the end of the first period. On Atlanta's first drive of the second quarter, Gay picked off QB Matt Ryan and returned it 52 yards for a score. It marked Gay's third pick-six this season, a new team record for most interceptions returned for a touchdown in a single season.

Late in the second quarter, Ryan connected with WR Devin Hester on a 17-yard touchdown to cut the Steelers lead 13-7. With less than 30 seconds remaining in the half, RB Le'Veon Bell scored on a one-yard run to give Pittsburgh a 20-7 advantage at halftime.

Atlanta managed two field goals by K Matt Bryant (28, 22) in the third quarter to cut Pittsburgh's lead 20-13 heading into the final quarter.

Only one minute into the fourth quarter, Bell scored from 13 yards out to give the Steelers a 27-13 advantage. Ryan threw a four-yard pass to WR Roddy White on the Falcons ensuing drive to give Atlanta its final points of the contest.

The Falcons had multiple opportunities to stop Pittsburgh but the Steelers kept getting key first downs, none bigger than a third-and-one conversion from QB Ben Roethlisberger to TE Heath Miller. The two connected on a 25-yard pass and Pittsburgh ran out the clock for the win.

Game #15
Pittsburgh 20, Kansas City 12
Dec. 21, 2014
Heinz Field (60,865)

PITTSBURGH – Pittsburgh improved to 10-5 on the season and clinched the team's ninth postseason berth since 2000 with a 20-12 victory over Kansas City at Heinz Field.

K Shaun Suisham connected from 23 yards to give Pittsburgh a 3-0 lead. K Cairo Santos connected from 35 yards to tie the game 3-3 at the end of the first quarter.

Santos made one from 25 yards early in the second quarter to give the Chiefs the team's only lead of the game. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, RB Le'Veon Bell scored on a one-yard run to give Pittsburgh the lead for good, 10-6.

The Chiefs marched into Steelers' territory midway through the third quarter. RB Jamaal Charles caught a pass and rookie DE Stephon Tuitt forced a fumble on Charles that was recovered by LB Vince Williams.

The Steelers then took over and marched 75 yards on 10 plays. QB Ben Roethlisberger capped off the drive with a three-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Brown to give the Steelers a 17-6 lead.

Santos made a 43-yard field goal and Suisham responded with a 23-yard make of his own. Kansas City cut the lead to 20-12 on Santos' 23-yard make but the team's onside kick attempt was recovered by Steelers' FB Will Johnson. The Steelers offense then took the field in their victory formation.

Pittsburgh's defense recorded a season-high six sacks, the first time the Steelers recorded six sacks in a game since December 23, 2012. LB Jason Worilds (2.0), LB James Harrison (1.5) and DE Cameron Heyward (1.5) each had a multi-sack game, and the defense held the Chiefs to a season-low 39 rushing yards.

This game also marked the third straight turnover free game for the Steelers' offense and the third straight game the Steelers' defense forced a turnover.

Game #16
Pittsburgh 27, Cincinnati 17
Dec. 28, 2014
Heinz Field (64,697)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger's 63-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Brown sealed the 27-17 victory for the Steelers over the Bengals at Heinz Field on Sunday Night Football. With the win, the Steelers won the AFC North and secured the No. 3 seed in the playoffs.

Early in the first quarter, Brown returned a punt 71 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead. It marked Brown's longest punt return of his career and his third career returned for a touchdown. All three have come against the Bengals at Heinz Field.

Cincinnati tied it up, 7-7, when QB Andy Dalton threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to RB Giovani Bernard. The Bengals took a 10-7 lead on K Mike Nugent's 39-yard field goal but it would be the Bengals' only lead of the contest.

K Shaun Suisham connected on a 29-yard field goal to tie the game, 10-10. On the Bengals' ensuing drive, Dalton was picked off by CB Brice McCain for the second time in the game and the Steelers took over in Cincinnati territory. Roethlisberger then found WR Martavis Bryant for a 21-yard touchdown pass. Suisham added a 25-yard field goal right before halftime and the Steelers lead 20-10 heading into the break.

Both teams missed opportunities in the third quarter. Nugent missed a 50-yard field goal and Roethlisberger was picked off in the red zone. Dalton connected with TE Jermaine Gresham for a five-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 20-17.

The Steelers attempted a fake punt midway through the fourth quarter but P Brad Wing's pass was intercepted. Cincinnati took over and marched into Steelers' territory. Dalton completed a pass to WR A.J. Green but CB Antwon Blake stripped the ball from Green and then recovered the fumble.

Three plays later, Roethlisberger hit Brown for the game-winning score.

Game #17

Baltimore 30, Pittsburgh 17
AFC Wild Card Game, Jan. 3, 2015
Heinz Field (62,780)

PITTSBURGH – QB Joe Flacco's 21-yard touchdown pass to TE Crockett Gillmore midway through the fourth quarter sealed the victory for Baltimore in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh moved the ball well in the first half but only managed to come away with three field goals by K Shaun Suisham (45, 22 and 47). Baltimore RB Bernard Pierce scored on a five-yard run and K Justin Tucker connected on a 28-yard field goal to give Baltimore its 10 points of the first half, and the Ravens led 10-9 at the break.

Tucker connected from 45 yards early in the third quarter to put Baltimore up 13-9. Flacco threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Torrey Smith midway through the third quarter to give the Ravens a 20-9 advantage.

The Steelers got a splash play from their defense early in the fourth quarter when rookie DE Stephon Tuitt recovered a Ravens' fumble. QB Ben Roethlisberger then connected with WR Antonio Brown for a 44-yard gain and rookie WR Martavis Bryant for a six-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 20-15.

Baltimore responded with a 52-yard field goal by Tucker to increase the Ravens' lead to 23-15. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, Roethlisberger was picked off by LB Terrell Suggs. On Baltimore's next play, Flacco hit Gillmore for the game-deciding touchdown.

The Steelers tried to rally but Roethlisberger was picked off in the end zone. A blocked punt for a safety by S Shamarko Thomas cut the Ravens' lead to 30-17.

Trailing by 13, Pittsburgh took over with less than two minutes remaining. TE Heath Miller fumbled and the Ravens secured the football and took over at the Pittsburgh 38-yard line. Baltimore then went into its victory formation.

RB Le'Veon Bell, the team's MVP, wasn't able to suit up due to a knee injury.

Pittsburgh Steelers Playoff Summaries

1947 NFL Divisional Game
Philadelphia 21, Pittsburgh 0
December 21, 1947

PHILADELPHIA — The Eagles of coach Earle (Greasy) Neale were on the rise, destined to play the next three NFL title games, whereas Jock Sutherland's Steelers—the last of the Single-Wing offenses to make the playoffs—would have only one winning season in the next decade and that is how each played.

The Eagles capitalized early on a Pittsburgh error. Pete Pihos blocked a punt by Bob Cifers, and the Eagles gained possession at the Steelers' 14. Two plays later, Tommy Thompson threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Steve Van Buren. The next period, Thompson went to the air again and found Jack Ferrante for 28 yards and a score that made it 14-0.

In the third quarter, the punting game again got the Steelers into trouble. Cifers outkicked his coverage and Bosh Pritchard wound his way through the Pittsburgh defense, going 79 yards for the final score.

Going into the game the Steelers were torn by controversy. The players demanded an extra paycheck for the playoff. Although they got their money, they outraged their coach Jock Sutherland, who proceeded to hold his pre-game practices outdoors in the snow and ice.

1962 Playoff Bowl
Detroit 17, Pittsburgh 10
January 6, 1963

MIAMI — The Steelers and Lions met in the third game of what was known as the Playoff Bowl. From 1960-66, the Playoff Bowl was played in Miami, Fla., consisting of the runners-up in each division. Detroit won its third consecutive Playoff Bowl, a 17-10 victory over the Steelers.

In what was a very physical game, the Steelers lost three key starters throughout the game. Halfback Willie Daniel sustained a concussion and a broken jaw, eventual Hall-of-Fame fullback John Henry Johnson left the game with a concussion, and tackle Dan James fractured his leg.

The Lions had the only scoring opportunity of the first quarter, however, a Wayne Walker 27-yard field goal attempt was wide left. He had a second chance in the second quarter and connected to give the Lions a 3-0 lead. The Steelers answered with a five-yard touchdown run by Dick Hoak, giving them a 7-3 lead. Detroit scored on their following drive thanks to a 20-yard pass from Milt Plum to Ken Webb, to give the Lions a 10-7 lead at halftime.

The Steelers tied the game halfway through the third quarter when Lou Michaels kicked a 40-yard field goal.

Detroit clinched the game with an 80-yard, four-play drive. Plum hit Dan Lewis for a gain of 73 yards. Then Ken Webb clinched the victory for the Lions with a three-yard touchdown run.

Bobby Layne replaced Ed Brown at quarterback with 7:46 remaining in the game and almost completed a Steelers' comeback. However, his effort fell short. Layne did complete 4-of-8 passes for 69 yards and one interception.

1972 AFC Divisional Playoff
Pittsburgh 13, Oakland 7
December 23, 1972

PITTSBURGH — Two unusual plays, one perhaps the oddest—and certainly the most controversial—in the long history of professional football, provided most of the offense in the final two minutes of what had been a tension-filled defensive struggle.

Field goals of 18 and 20 yards by Roy Gerela had given Pittsburgh a 6-0 lead. QB Ken Stabler erased it as he scrambled 30 yards on a broken play to put Oakland in front with one minute and 13 seconds remaining.

Down to their last play, the Steelers were 60 yards from the Oakland goal when rookie Franco Harris made an incredible shoe-top catch off a ricocheted pass and ran 42 yards for the TD.

The dispute on the game-winning play centered on whether the flight of the ball was altered by the contact of Oakland's Jack Tatum or the Steelers' John "Frenchy" Fuqua.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers stumbled on the last step to a Super Bowl berth when QB Bob Griese rallied the unbeaten Miami Dolphins.

Actually, the outcome may have been determined on a trick play. With the Steelers leading 7-0 by virtue of a TD the first time they had the ball, Larry Seiple ran 37 yards on a fake punt deep into Pittsburgh territory.

The play took away the Steelers' early momentum and led to the Dolphins tying score. After a field goal early in the third quarter gave Pittsburgh its last lead, Griese took over from Earl Morrall and drove his team 80 yards for the go-ahead TD.

A blocked field goal attempt paved the way for Miami's third TD. Terry Bradshaw made it necessary as he returned to the game after suffering a first quarter head injury. He completed four straight passes for 71 yards to pull his team within four points, but two interceptions ended Pittsburgh's Cinderella season.

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Raiders got a full measure of revenge for three straight losses to the Steelers, including one on the opening round of the AFC playoffs in 1972.

Oakland drove 80 yards for a touchdown the first time they had the ball and quarterback Ken Stabler mixed a strong inside running game with accurate short passes, a pattern he was to follow all afternoon.

A Steelers' touchdown late in the second quarter narrowed the halftime score to 10-7.

The Raiders added field goals on their first two third-quarter possessions. Two plays after the second one Willie Brown picked off a Terry Bradshaw pass in the flat and returned it 54 yards to put the game out of reach.

A fourth George Blanda field goal preceded Bradshaw's second touchdown pass—a 26-yarder to Frank Lewis.

1974 AFC Divisional Playoff

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers' offense took the pressure off their defensive teammates early by exploding for four second-quarter touchdowns as Terry Bradshaw played one of the finest games of his pro career.

Trailing 7-3 after young Joe Ferguson led the Bills on a well-executed 56-yard drive, the Steelers went ahead for good when Bradshaw connected with Rocky Bleier for a 27-yard scoring toss. Before the halftime intermission, Franco Harris ripped off three touchdown runs in less than five minutes to tie an NFL record and put the game out of Buffalo's reach.

Harris' middle score was set up by Lynn Swann's sensational diving catch on the Buffalo four-yard line that was the game's biggest play and probably the turning point.

The game's most crucial turnover, a Jim Braxton fumble after he had run 30 yards into Steelers' territory, preceded that Pittsburgh series.

The big halftime margin forced the Bills out of their normal ball-control offense and Ferguson was greatly handicapped as he threw 15 times in the second half against a stacked defense. While Buffalo played catch-up, the Steelers were content to run the ball. Bradshaw threw just five times in the final half.

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers combined the power running of Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier with a defense that held the Raiders to an incredible 29 yards rushing and intercepted three Ken Stabler passes en route to a 24-13 victory.

The Steelers took command of the game after Stabler combined with Cliff Branch on a 38-yard touchdown pass to give the Raiders a 10-3 lead in the third quarter.

The teams had traded first half field goals. Taking the kickoff following Branch's score, the Steelers grinded out 61 yards in nine plays with Harris blasting up the middle for eight yards and the touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter. Jack Ham's second interception of the day paved the way to the Steelers' winning score. He returned it 24 yards to the Oakland nine.

Terry Bradshaw, who played another outstanding game, hit Lynn Swann in the end zone for the touchdown. The Raiders added a second field goal but it was the end of the line for them as the Steeler defense totally dominated the line of scrimmage.

J.T. Thomas' interception with just over a minute to play ended any Oakland comeback hopes. Harris followed with a 21-yard touchdown run.

PITTSBURGH — Franco Harris ran for an AFC playoff record 153 yards but it was Mel Blount's interception late in the third quarter that provided the Steelers with the impetus to overcome a 10-7 Baltimore lead, propelling the Steelers to a 28-10 victory.

Following Jack Ham's interception, the Steelers put together a 61-yard, four-play drive, highlighted by Frank Lewis' sensational one-handed 34-yard catch, to take a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Playing without regular quarterback Bert Jones, the Colts used a Lloyd Mumphord interception to tie the game on Marty Domres' pass to Glenn Doughty.

Another turnover, one of four by the Steelers, a fumble by Harris at his own 19, gave the Colts a field goal and their only lead of the game. Three minutes later Blount made his steal and Bleier scored standing up on the first play.

The Pittsburgh defense stiffened, holding the Colts without a first down on their next three possessions. The Steelers put it out of reach with Terry Bradshaw's gutty two-yard touchdown run which capped a 39-yard drive.

Then Andy Russell scored on a record 93-yard fumble return following a Ham sacking of Jones who had returned at the start of the final quarter.

1975 AFC Championship

(49,103)

PITTSBURGH — In a game that was not decided until the final play, the Steelers overcame eight turnovers, including a lost onside kick, which gave the Raiders a final opportunity to win, for a 16-10 victory.

The game was played on an icy field with temperatures in the teens and strong, gusty winds.

Oakland intercepted two passes in the first quarter but the best they could get out of them was a missed 38-yard field goal. The Steelers took advantage of the initial Raider turnover, the first of Mike Wagner's two interceptions and a 20-yard return, to get on the board with a field goal.

The Steelers missed two field-goal attempts, 44- and 48-yard tries, in a third quarter in which the Raiders committed three turnovers to the Steelers' one.

Franco Harris completed a 70-yard drive when he found the middle jammed and swung around his left side for 25 yards scoring the game's first TD on the second play of the final quarter.

Ken Stabler responded with a 60-yard, six-pass drive to reduce the Steeler lead to three again.

Another Oakland fumble, which Jack Lambert grabbed for his third recovery of the game on the Oakland 25, set up the final Steelers score. While the Steelers were running out the clock, Harris fumbled and the Raiders quickly moved into position for a 41-yard field goal. The Steelers committed their third fumble in the final five minutes of the game on the ensuing onside kickoff but time ran out on the Raiders.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers struck quick with a 76-yard touchdown pass from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis on the game's third play en route to setting league marks for total yardage and a then-team postseason record for points, with a 40-14 win.

Terry Bradshaw played the finest game of his career, setting then-personal highs by completing 78 percent of his passes for three touchdowns.

The Steelers scored five of the first six times they had the ball and their 17-point second quarter sealed the victory.

First-half interceptions by Mike Wagner and Glen Edwards and five quarterback sacks, two by Andy Russell on successive plays, paced the defense.

However, the victory was a very costly one, which would take its toll one week later.

Both Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier suffered injuries which sidelined them for the AFC title game. Harris was hurt early in the third quarter after rushing for 132 yards. Frenchy Fuqua and Reggie Harrison picked up the slack, making large contributions rushing and receiving.

1976 AFC Championship

Oakland 24, Pittsburgh 7

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers and Raiders met for a fifth straight year in the playoffs and third season in a row for the AFC title.

The Raiders ended the Steelers seven-game postseason winning streak with a surprisingly strong running game and the timely passing of Ken Stabler, which they parlayed with a tenacious defense onto a 24-7 victory.

Oakland grabbed a 10-point lead on a pair of Steelers' errors. A partially blocked punt led to a field goal and an interception on a deflection that was returned to the one yard-line set up a touchdown.

Forced to throw because of injuries to Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, neither of whom played, the Steelers fought back and on their next possession and went 75 yards with all but 16 coming through the air. However, the Raiders matched it by storming 69 yards to score with 23 seconds left in the half.

After their 63-yard scoring drive in the third quarter, the Raiders were content to play conservatively while the desperate Steelers were forced to play catch-up, something they were unable to do this day.

1977 AFC Divisional Playoff

Denver 34, Pittsburgh 21
December 24, 1977
(75,011)

DENVER — Making the same mistakes that typified their play during the regular season, the Steelers were eliminated in the opening round of the playoffs for the first time since 1973, losing to Denver 34-21.

Pittsburgh lost the football on four turnovers plus a blocked punt, which accounted for 24 of Denver's points. The blocked punt and a Franco Harris fumble set up short scoring drives of 17 and 10 yards which kept the Broncos in the game in the first half when the Steelers held a 183-44 edge in offensive yardage. Both Steelers touchdowns came on long, time-consuming drives in the second quarter as Harris ran for 82 yards in the first half with 60 of them coming during the two scoring efforts.

In the second half, the Steelers deserted their productive running game and rushed the ball just nine times with Harris getting it five times after carrying on 23 occasions in the initial 30 minutes. They were outgained by Denver, 214-121.

After stopping the Broncos four times from inside the two-yard line in the third quarter, the Steelers could not get out of the hole that led to Denver's third score, a first down pass for 30 yards.

The Steelers had one more comeback attempt left as they came from behind for the third time to even the score on a 60-yard, four-play march with all but one of the yards coming through the air.

After that, Pittsburgh got just one first down on its final three possessions and turned the ball over twice on interceptions to set up Denver's last 10 points.

The lone positive note for the Steelers was Harris becoming the first pro player to gain 1,000 yards in postseason play, pushing his total to 1,050.

1978 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 33, Denver 10
December 30, 1978
(48,921)

PITTSBURGH — Playing their first playoff game at home in three years, the Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship game for the fourth time in six years with one of their best overall performances ever in postseason play, defeating Denver, 33-10.

After falling behind 3-0, the Steelers scored touchdowns on back-to-back possessions to assume a commanding lead and were never seriously threatened thereafter.

The offense gained 425 yards, while Terry Bradshaw had a postseason career-high of 272 yards passing and was aided by the great touchdown receptions of John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, both of whom took balls away from Denver defenders in the end zone. Stallworth set a then-NFL Divisional Playoff record with his 10 catches. Franco Harris added to four NFL postseason records he already held. He increased his totals to 1,155 yards, 282 rushing attempts, five 100-yard games and 12 touchdowns.

The Pittsburgh defense was no less than devastating, completely shutting down the Broncos' running game and marking the sixth straight game in which it did not allow 100 yards rushing. This forced Denver to go to a passing game and resulted in six quarterback sacks.

Joe Greene took away the Broncos early second-half momentum when he blocked a field goal attempt. Then Stallworth and Swann settled the issue with two big catches in a 32-second span of the fourth quarter. Sandwiched between those two plays was Rick Upchurch's fumble on the kickoff following Stallworth's big play, which Dennis Winston recovered.

1978 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 34, Houston 5
January 7, 1979
(49,417)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their third AFC Championship in five years with an awesome offensive and defensive display, defeating the Houston Oilers, 34-5.

The game was played in a cold, steady rain which contributed to an NFL postseason record of 12 fumbles.

The Steelers built a 14-3 lead on touchdown runs by Franco Harris (seven yards) and Rocky Bleier (17 yards). They broke the game open with a 17-point burst in the last 52 seconds of the first half by capitalizing on three Houston fumbles. Both touchdowns in this span came on Terry Bradshaw passes to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann.

The Steelers quarterback was spectacular in completing 11-of-19 attempts for 200 yards while Dan Pastorini, his counterpart, was harassed by the Pittsburgh defense and the weather. He was intercepted five times and sacked on four occasions, and the tremendous Steelers pass rush forced him to throw most of the time under severe pressure.

Rookie Earl Campbell, the NFL's leading rusher, was limited to 26 yards on 15 carries in the first half and finished the game with just 62 yards on 22 attempts.

The Steelers' dominance was best exhibited by the first half yardage totals of 287 to 54. All-Pro linebacker Jack Ham was a standout with an interception, two fumble recoveries and a sack. The Steelers enjoyed great field position most of the game that was aided by 90 yards in interception returns and 91 yards on Theo Bell's six punt returns.

1979 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 34, Miami 14
December 30, 1979
(50,214)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers were flawless in the first quarter, controlling the football for more than 13 minutes and scoring touchdowns the first three times they had the ball en route to a 34-14 victory. Miami was able to run just seven plays for a net of two yards.

Pittsburgh converted four of four third-down plays in the opening period and was successful on 11-of-14 the entire game. In directing the three early drives, Terry Bradshaw completed 7-of-9 passes.

With a big cushion, the defense never gave Miami a chance, stopping the Dolphins without a score twice in the second quarter when they had first downs inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line. Dennis Winston's interception ended one drive and a great goal-line stand the other.

At halftime the Steelers held a 229-35 edge in yardage and a 15-4 margin in first downs. For the game, the Dolphins, a ball-control team, rushed for 25 yards on 22 carries with 21 of those yards coming in the final quarter.

It was the fourth straight postseason game in which the Steelers had scored over 30 points. Bradshaw set a personal postseason record with 21 completions, and Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 12th time in 15 postseason games increasing his all-time lead total to 1,357 yards and scored his 15th touchdown, another postseason record. The victory was the Steelers' 15th straight at home and sixth postseason win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1979 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 27, Houston 13
January 6, 1980
(50,475)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their fourth AFC Championship in six years in a hard-fought, physical game over the Houston Oilers that was much closer than the 27-13 final score indicates, typifying the rivalry that exists between the AFC Central rivals.

Even though the statistics favored the Steelers, their last touchdown came in the final minute and the final score was their largest margin of the game.

Terry Bradshaw continued his spectacular postseason play, converting 13-of-19 third-down opportunities, and the defense did not allow a touchdown, holding the Oilers to just 24 yards rushing and Earl Campbell to 15 yards on 17 attempts.

Houston jumped in front when Vernon Perry stopped a promising drive with an interception which he returned 75 yards for a score. The teams traded field goals on back-to-back possessions.

Bradshaw guided his team to touchdowns on their next two chances which gave the Steelers a lead they never surrendered although it was seriously threatened late in the third quarter when the officials ruled Mike Renfro did not have possession on what appeared to be a tying touchdown pass. The Oilers settled for a field goal which the Steelers soon matched.

A fumble led to Pittsburgh's last score.

Bradshaw's two touchdown passes gave him a postseason career total of 26, an NFL record, increasing his yardage record to 3,199. Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 13th time in 16 postseason games and increased his rushing yardage to 1,442, another NFL mark. The win was the Steelers 16th straight at home and seventh playoff win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1982 AFC Tournament

San Diego 31, Pittsburgh 28
January 9, 1983
(53,546)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers ended their 50th season with one of their most bitter losses ever, a 31-28 defeat to the San Diego Chargers.

Dan Fouts threw two short touchdown passes to Kellen Winslow in the final nine minutes after the Steelers had taken an 11-point lead early in the fourth quarter.

Terry Bradshaw played one of the greatest games of his career, completing 25 of his first 28 passes, including 15 in a row, but threw two interceptions, which knocked the Steelers out of the playoffs.

The initial interception came on a first down play from the San Diego 29-yard line on the first play after the two-minute warning in the second quarter with the Steelers leading, 14-10. Bruce Laird returned the interception 35 yards and the Chargers drove 64 yards to take their first lead, 17-14.

The last and most costly interception came with 11 minutes to play and the Steelers holding a 28-17 margin. This one was returned by Jeff Allen to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line from where the Chargers scored on five plays plus an important holding penalty which nullified a Mel Blount interception.

After two Steelers first downs on the next series, John Goodson's 20-yard punt gave San Diego decent field position and they capitalized on the winning score.

The game started on a bizarre note when rookie Guy Ruff recovered James Brooks' fumble off the opening kickoff in the end zone to set an NFL record for the quickest score at the start of the game.

1983 AFC Divisional Playoff

Los Angeles 38, Pittsburgh 10
January 1, 1984
(90,334)

LOS ANGELES — For the second straight year, the Steelers were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, losing 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The defeat was their fifth in the last six games and their sixth straight to the Raiders.

After taking the lead on an impressive 78-yard drive, which produced three first downs, the Pittsburgh offense struggled for the balance of the game.

On their first scoring series, the Steelers elected to kick a field goal rather than try for a touchdown inches from the Raider goal line. The march was highlighted by a spectacular 44-yard reception by Wayne Capers. The Raiders took the lead the next time the Steelers had the ball when Lester Hayes stepped in front of a Cliff Stoudt to Calvin Sweeney sideline pass. Los Angeles scored on its next possession and added a field goal with six seconds remaining in the first half.

The Raiders scored the first three times they had the ball in the second half with drives of 72, 58, and 65 yards, while the Steelers settled for a 58-yard scoring pass from Stoudt to John Stallworth.

It was a record-tying 10th touchdown reception for Stallworth and the eighth straight playoff game in which he had scored to extend his own NFL mark.

The attendance of 90,334 was the largest postseason crowd in NFL history other than a Super Bowl and the second largest to ever see the Steelers play.

1984 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 24, Denver 17
December 30, 1984
(74,981)

DENVER — The Steelers overcame a near-disastrous start, a blocked punt and three missed field goals to earn their first postseason win since Super Bowl XIV, a 24-17 victory over Denver.

Eric Williams' interception and 28-yard return to the two-yard line with three and a half minutes to go set up the winning touchdown, scored on a gutty two-yard plunge by Frank Pollard. Twice the Steelers came back from seven point deficits and their three scoring drives prior to the final TD averaged almost 70 yards while the Broncos, meanwhile, never traveled more than 46 yards for their 17 points.

The game opened with Mark Malone losing two fumbles in Pittsburgh's first two possessions. However, Malone rebounded from his early miscues to complete six-of-eight passes on the Steelers' two scoring drives that gave them a halftime lead, 10-7.

A blocked punt on Pittsburgh's first second half possession gave Denver the ball on the four-yard line but for the second time inside their own 10, the Steeler defense stiffened and the Broncos had to settle for a field goal. The next time the Broncos had the ball they broke the 10-10 tie with their most impressive offensive series of the game with the touchdown coming on a John Elway bullet to Steve Watson, the Denver offensive hero with 11 receptions. After a 10-yard touchdown reception by Louis Lipps on which he broke several tackles, the Broncos managed only two first downs the rest of the game.

Two plays after a Gary Anderson missed field goal attempt, Williams turned the game around again with his big interception. Pollard with 99 yards and Abercrombie with 75 had postseason career highs rushing while Gary Dunn had his first career interception in the second quarter to end a Denver threat on the four-yard line.

1984 AFC Championship

Miami 45, Pittsburgh 28
January 6, 1985
(76,029)

MIAMI — Dan Marino set AFC Championship game records with 421 yards passing and four touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 45-28 victory over Pittsburgh.

Eleven of Marino's 21 completions were for 20 yards or more and three were at least 40 yards, as the Steelers secondary could not contain the ultra-quick Dolphin receivers and three of their touchdown drives took less than two minutes to complete.

The Steelers controlled the ball on the ground most of the first half but after they had taken a 14-10 lead on John Stallworth's NFL record 11th touchdown reception in postseason, the Dolphins scored two touchdowns in the last 2:52 of the half and added another one on their first possession of the second half.

Following the scoring barrage, the Steelers were forced to open up their offense and stray away from their ball-control game which was very effective in the first 30 minutes and had accounted for 123 yards rushing and a four-minute edge in possession time. If there was a turning point, it came with a minute and a half left in the first half and Miami holding a 17-14 lead when Mark Malone suffered his third interception which the Dolphins quickly converted into a touchdown and a 10-point margin.

From the end of the first half to their first series of the fourth quarter, the Dolphins scored on five straight possessions. The 1,024 total yards by both teams was an AFC title game record as was the 50 first downs. Stallworth added to his touchdown reception mark with a tumbling third-quarter touchdown reception that brought the Steelers to within 10 points. Marino answered with 80 and 66-yard drives to put the game out of reach. Malone had career-highs with 20 completions and 312 yards passing.

1989 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 26, Houston 23 (OT)
December 31, 1989
(58,306)

HOUSTON — Houston attempted and missed a 55-yard field goal on their first possession and had a punt blocked by linebacker Jerry Olsavsky on their second to set up running back Tim Worley's nine-yard touchdown run which came on a fourth-and-one situation to set the tone for a 26-23 overtime win.

Both teams then added three field goals each before the Oilers staged a fourth-quarter comeback.

Quarterback Warren Moon hit wide receiver Ernest Givins with touchdown passes of 19 and nine yards to put Houston ahead 23-16 with 6:02 left in the game. The Steelers then marched 82 yards on 11 plays, including a 22-yard reverse by wide receiver Dwight Stone, to tie the score at 23-23 with 46 seconds remaining.

In overtime, Pittsburgh got the ball first but was forced to punt after three plays, giving Houston possession at their own 45-yard line. On the Oilers' first play, running back Lorenzo White ran left and fumbled when hit by cornerback Rod Woodson, who recovered the ball at the Houston 46. Five plays later, Gary Anderson booted a 50-yard field goal to end the game at 3:26 of overtime.

Anderson's field goal broke two Steelers postseason records, for most in a game (four) and longest. Running back Merril Hoge became the second Steelers running back to rush for 100 yards in a postseason game, while the Oilers' Givins finished with 11 receptions for 136 yards and two touchdowns.

1989 Divisional Playoff

Denver 24, Pittsburgh 23
January 7, 1990
(75,868)

DENVER — The Steelers dominated Denver throughout the game before falling behind by one point with 2:27 remaining, and suffered a 24-23 loss. A fumbled snap from shotgun formation on third down led to the defeat and eliminated them from advancing to the AFC Championship game.

The Steelers produced a season-high 404 offensive yards including 180 total yards by running back Merril Hoge, but Denver marched 71 yards in nine plays on a fourth-quarter drive for the winning touchdown.

The Steelers had a lead throughout the game, opening with the first of Gary Anderson's three field goals. In the second quarter, Hoge swept left end untouched for a seven-yard touchdown run that extended the Steelers' lead to 10-0 and capped a 93-yard drive that began with a 45-yard run by Hoge.

The Broncos responded with a 12-play, 75-yard drive with running back Melvin Bratton scoring the first of his two one-yard touchdown runs.

Wide receiver Louis Lipps gave Pittsburgh a 10-point lead again with a nine-yard touchdown catch from Bubby Brister, but the Broncos tied the score at 17-17 on wide receiver Vance Johnson's 37-yard reception. Anderson's 35- and 32-yard field goals extended the Steelers' lead to six before Bratton's touchdown and the PAT put Denver ahead, 24-23.

Hoge became the first Steelers player to have consecutive 100-yard rushing games in postseason as he ran 10 times for 100 yards in the first half. Anderson set a team record with his seventh consecutive field goal in postseason, while Brister's 65.5 percent completion rate (19 of 29) was the fourth highest in team history for a game.

1992 AFC Divisional Playoff

Buffalo 24, Pittsburgh 3
January 9, 1993
(60,407)

PITTSBURGH — Ten years to the day since their last home playoff game, the Steelers fell victim to turnovers and a tough Buffalo defense in front of a then-Three Rivers Stadium-record crowd of 60,407, for a 24-3 loss.

Gary Anderson's 38-yard field goal on their first drive was the extent of Pittsburgh's scoring as Neil O'Donnell threw two interceptions, fumbled once and was sacked seven times in his first action since December 6.

The Bills' first touchdown came on a one-yard pass from Frank Reich to offensive lineman Mitch Frerotte while the Steelers lost two interceptions and a fumble in the first half to fall behind 7-3. Buffalo scored on their first three possessions of the second half while the Steelers punted twice, failed to convert a fourth-down attempt and gave the ball up on downs following an aborted field goal try on their four second-half drives.

A turning point in the game came in the middle of the third quarter when left cornerback Richard Shelton stepped in front of Don Beebe but was unable to make the interception with an open field in front of him. James Lofton caught a 17-yard scoring pass on the next play to give the Bills a 14-3 lead.

The Steelers got inside the Buffalo 20 only twice and got a field goal, but Buffalo capitalized with three touchdowns on three trips inside the Pittsburgh 20.

Thurman Thomas was held to 54 yards rushing although Kenneth Davis gained 104 yards on 10 carries. Barry Foster countered with 104 yards on 20 carries in his first postseason game.

1993 Wild Card Game

Kansas City 27, Pittsburgh 24 (OT)
January 8, 1994
(74,515)

KANSAS CITY — The Steelers never trailed until Nick Lowery's 32-yard field goal 11:03 into overtime clinched the 27-24 Kansas City win.

Scoring on their first drive, Pittsburgh held a 10-point lead at halftime before the Chiefs came back with 17 second-half points, tying the Steelers at 17-17 in the fourth quarter and at 24-24 with 1:43 left in the game.

The final tying touchdown was set up on a blocked punt by the Chiefs' Keith Cash, which was returned 31 yards by Fred Jones to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

From there, on fourth-and-goal, Joe Montana found Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone with his only touchdown pass.

The Steelers were then forced to punt again, and the Chiefs drove to the Pittsburgh 25 with an opportunity to take the lead, but Lowery's 43-yard field goal try was wide right with 12 seconds remaining.

In overtime, both teams punted on their first possession before Kansas City marched 66 yards in 11 plays to the Pittsburgh 14, setting up Lowery's game-winner.

Neil O'Donnell threw three touchdown passes, one each to tight ends Adrian Cooper and Eric Green as well as wide receiver Ernie Mills, while completing 23-of-42 attempts for 286 yards. Despite throwing incomplete on his first seven passes, Montana completed 28 of 42 for 276 yards and was sacked four times, three by Gerald Williams.

The Steelers converted nine of 19 third-down plays with a good mix of runs and passes, and had a possession advantage of 32:08 to 27:52 in regulation, but the Chiefs held the ball for 8:13 in overtime and limited the Steelers to just 2:50.

1994 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 29, Cleveland 9
January 7, 1995
(58,185)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh scored on its first three possessions on drives of 65, 53 and 74 yards en route to a 29-9 victory at Three Rivers Stadium.

The Browns made it 17-3 with a 22-yard Matt Stover field goal. Pittsburgh got one more opportunity when Tim McKyer intercepted Vinny Testaverde on the Cleveland 27 yard-line and returned it to the six, with 46 seconds remaining in the half. Three plays later, Pittsburgh took a 24-3 halftime lead when Neil O'Donnell hit Yancey Thigpen for a nine-yard grab.

The Steelers added a 40-yard Anderson field goal in the third quarter and a safety by Carnell Lake in the fourth quarter.

Cleveland drove into Pittsburgh territory just three times in 12 possessions. The Steelers outgained Cleveland 424 yards to 186, 23 first downs to 10 and had 42:27 to 17:33 advantage in time of possession.

The victory was Pittsburgh's first playoff win in five years.

1994 AFC Championship

(61,545)

PITTSBURGH — The Chargers used a goal-line stand in the final two minutes to deal Pittsburgh a heart-breaking 17-13 loss before a record crowd of 61,545 at Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh opened the game with a 13-play, 67-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead. Twice the Steelers advanced inside San Diego's 20-yard line but only came away with two Gary Anderson field goals.

Pittsburgh led 13-3 until midway through the third quarter when Chargers' quarterback Stan Humphries connected with Alfred Pupunu for a 43-yard score.

The Steelers, who nearly doubled San Diego's offensive output in all categories, didn't fall behind until there were less than six minutes remaining in the game. A San Diego false start penalty on Harry Swayne nullified a third-down defensive stand to give the Chargers one more chance. On third-down and in need of 14 yards, Humphries hit Tony Martin with a 43-yard score with Tim McKeyer in coverage to give the Chargers a 17-13 lead.

The Steelers began their final drive at their 17 yard-line to the Chargers' three. On fourth down and three yards, San Diego linebacker Dennis Gibson batted down the scoring strike intended for Barry Foster. San Diego controlled the clock for the game's final minute.

1995 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 40, Buffalo 21
January 6, 1996
(59,072)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers dealt the Buffalo Bills their worst postseason loss in non-Super Bowl play with a 40-21 defeat in Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh scored on five of their seven first-half possessions, including touchdowns by John L. Williams and Ernie Mills on their first two drives. Buffalo added a Thurman Thomas touchdown at 49 seconds before the half, but Pittsburgh closed the half with Norm Johnson's third field goal to take a 23-7 halftime lead.

It seemed the game might turn into a rout when Pittsburgh marched to the Bills' four yard-line on the first possession of the second half, but the drive ended with a Greg Evans interception.

The Steelers added a record (tied) fourth field goal by Norm Johnson in the third quarter to take a 19-point lead.

Buffalo battled back with a touchdown pass from Jim Kelly to Thurman Thomas to cut the lead to less than a touchdown with over 11 minutes remaining in the game. Pittsburgh responded with a 76-yard drive that included key third-down receptions by Yancey Thigpen for 21 yards and Andre Hastings for 17 yards. Bam Morris finished off the drive with a 13-yard touchdown run.

Interceptions by Jerry Olsavsky and Levon Kirkland ended the Bills' next two drives, the latter at the Bills' 17 yard-line. Four plays later, the Steelers added a second Bam Morris touchdown and gained a 40-21 advantage at the two-minute warning.

The 40 points scored tied a then Steelers postseason game high (40, Dec. 19, 1976 at Baltimore). The offense ran 78 plays, second most all-time postseason, and the line allowed no sacks for the 12th time in postseason history.

1995 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 20, Indianapolis 16

(61,062)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers exorcised the demons of the 1994 AFC Championship game with a 20-16 heart-stopper over the Indianapolis Colts to advance to the Super Bowl.

For the second straight year it was a pass on the game's final play that determined Pittsburgh's Super Bowl future. A Hail Mary pass by Colts' quarterback Jim Harbaugh to Aaron Bailey was batted away by DB Randy Fuller to send the Steelers to Arizona.

The game was reminiscent of the 1995 AFC Championship game. The Steelers had a 10-6 advantage at halftime with a five-yard touchdown pass from Neil O'Donnell to Kordell Stewart in the closing seconds of the half and a first quarter Norm Johnson field goal.

The Colts' scoring came from the foot of kicker Cary Blanchard. Indianapolis added a third field goal on their opening drive in the third quarter to pull within one point.

The Steelers countered with a second Norm Johnson field goal, but found themselves behind 16-13 after Jim Harbaugh hit Floyd Turner for a 47-yard touchdown strike with 8:46 remaining in the game.

The Steelers and the Colts traded punts as the clock slipped to 3:03 and Pittsburgh took over the ball at their own 33 yard-line. After a fourth-down reception by Andre Hastings, O'Donnell hit Ernie Mills along the right sideline for a 37-yard gain to advance to the Colts' one-yard line. Two plays later, Bam Morris punched in the go-ahead touchdown.

However, the Colts weren't ready to be corralled. Starting at his own 16-yard line, Jim Harbaugh led Indianapolis to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line before throwing the "Hail Mary" pass with just five seconds left in the game.

(61,062)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers overcame two first-half turnovers to score the most points in Steelers playoff history and the team's most decisive postseason win in 18 years with a 42-14 victory against Indianapolis.

The team scored the game's first 13 points and final 29 with a ground attack that ranked fourth in Steelers postseason history.

The Steelers took a 10-0 lead with Norm Johnson field goal and Kordell Stewart's one-yard touchdown scamper that was set up by a Jahine Arnold 31-yard punt return. Pittsburgh added a 50-yard Johnson field goal to start the second quarter.

Indianapolis responded with 14 unanswered points for a 14-13 halftime lead.

Pittsburgh regained the momentum on the opening drive of the second half. Starting from their own nine-yard line, the Steelers marched 91 yards in 16 plays while running 9:30 off the clock. The drive ended with a Jerome Bettis touchdown and a Stewart to John Farquhar two-point conversion.

The Steelers offense churned out 228 yards in the second half, while the defense held the Colts to 22 second-half yards and two first downs. Included in the Steelers three fourth-quarter touchdowns was Witman's 31-yard rushing touchdown which was his first NFL touchdown and second-longest postseason touchdown run in Steelers' history.

Five rushing touchdowns was a single-game postseason record. It was the fourth time in a Steeler playoff history they had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in a game. The Steelers' 42 points was their highest point total in the postseason.

1996 AFC Divisional Playoff

New England 28, Pittsburgh 3
January 5, 1997
(60,188)

FOXBORO, Mass. — The Steelers playoff hopes ended on a fog enshrouded field in Foxboro and a 28-3 defeat.

It was a game of big plays from the opening drive. Unfortunately, the Patriots made them and scored on three of their first four possessions.

Quarterback Drew Bledsoe hit Terry Glenn for a 53-yard gain against Rod Woodson on New England's first play from scrimmage. One play later, Curtis Martin made the score, 7-0.

The Steelers second possession ended with their second punt. New England used a short field to gain a 14-0 lead with a Bledsoe to Keith Byars 34-yard touchdown reception.

New England added an exclamation point when Martin broke a 78-yard touchdown run to open the second quarter. Pittsburgh's struggling offense gained just 29 yards in 13 plays in three first-quarter possessions. They fared no better in the second quarter, converting just one of seven third-down plays.

Jerome Bettis, despite two pulled groin muscles, tried to carry the ground attack. The Steelers turned a Chad Brown interception into a Norm Johnson field goal, giving them their only points of the day. But two second-half interceptions, including one that led to a third Martin touchdown, kept the Steelers from making a rally.

1997 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 7, New England 6
January 3, 1998
(61,228)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers defeated the New England Patriots for the second time in three weeks, 7-6, in the AFC Divisional Playoff.

Pittsburgh forced four turnovers, including two in the final 1:44 of the game, and advanced to the AFC Championship for the third time in four years.

The Steelers struck early when Kordell Stewart scampered around left end and raced 40 yards for a touchdown on the team's opening possession with 9:49 left in the first quarter. The drive began when rookie cornerback Chad Scott intercepted quarterback Drew Bledsoe and returned it 27 yards to the Steelers 38.

New England was limited to a pair of short field goals by Adam Vinatieri and fell two games short of a return to the Super Bowl.

Linebacker Jason Gildon recovered a pair of fumbles for the Steelers. The second recovery came after backup left end Mike Vrabel stripped Bledsoe of the ball, and Gildon pounced on it at the Pittsburgh 34 with 1:44 to play.

The Patriots got back the ball in the final seconds before linebacker Levon Kirkland intercepted a long pass by Bledsoe to seal the win.

1997 AFC Championship

Denver 24, Pittsburgh 21

(61,382)

PITTSBURGH — John Elway passed for two touchdowns in the final 1:47 of the first half to help Denver build a 24-14 lead, while the Broncos defense forced four turnovers by Pittsburgh quarterback Kordell Stewart to propel Denver to a 24-21 victory against the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game.

The Steelers, who were hosting the AFC Championship for the third time in four years under coach Bill Cowher, had a 14-7 lead after a Kordell Stewart 33-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

Stewart was 6-of-17 for 69 yards with two interceptions in the first half. He finished 18-of-36 for 201 yards with three interceptions and a fumble.

The only score of the second half was a 15-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to Charles Johnson that pulled the Steelers within 24-21 with 2:46 left in the fourth quarter. The touchdown capped a 10-play, 79-yard drive in just 2:57.

Because Pittsburgh had all three timeouts left, Cowher opted not to attempt an on-side kick. But just after the two-minute warning on a third-and-six play, Elway drilled an 18-yard pass to tight end Shannon Sharpe to the Denver 33 with Jason Gildon in coverage. On the next play, Elway rolled right and flipped a 10-yard pass to Ed McCaffrey. Davis then broke off a 19-yard run with less than 50 seconds remaining to seal the win.

2001 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 27, Baltimore 10
January 20, 2002
(63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship Game by dominating the Baltimore Ravens during a 27-10 victory at Heinz Field.

Starting running back Jerome Bettis missed the game due to an adverse reaction to pain medication that he received prior to the game.

However, the Steelers' defense dominated the game, limiting Baltimore to only 22 yards rushing and 150 yards total, while intercepting Ravens quarterback Elvis Grbac three times, including two interceptions in the end zone by free safety Brent Alexander.

Steelers' cornerback Chad Scott intercepted Grbac's first pass of the game to set up Kris Brown's 21-yard field goal that gave Pittsburgh a 3-0 first quarter lead.

Pittsburgh extended their lead to 10-0 later in the quarter when running back Amos Zereoue capped a 51-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

Zereoue's second touchdown, also from one yard out, increased the Steelers' lead to 17-0 midway through the second quarter. Brown's 46-yard field goal on Pittsburgh's next drive gave the Steelers a 20-0 advantage with 3:46 left in the first half.

A 26-yard field goal by Baltimore kicker Matt Stover made the score 20-3 at halftime. Jermaine Lewis' 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in the third quarter pulled the Ravens to within 20-10.

Pittsburgh made the final score 27-10 when quarterback Kordell Stewart completed a 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Plaxico Burress early in the fourth quarter.

2001 AFC Championship Game

New England 24, Pittsburgh 17
January 27, 2002
(64,704)

PITTSBURGH — After trailing 21-3 in the third quarter, a Steelers' comeback fell short as Pittsburgh was defeated by the Patriots, 24-17, ending their Super Bowl hopes.

Despite the anticipated return of running back Jerome Bettis, the Steelers ground game never got rolling against a Patriots defense that held Pittsburgh's league leading rushing attack to a season-low 58 yards.

New England jumped out to a 7-0 lead after a penalty nullified a 64-yard Josh Miller punt and Troy Brown returned the second kick 55 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. The Steelers responded with a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Kris Brown booting a 30-yard field goal to cut the Patriots' lead to 7-3.

With two minutes left in the first half, New England quarterback Tom Brady was forced out of the game with an ankle injury after completing a 28-yard pass to Troy Brown on a key third-down play. Drew Bledsoe came in and moved the offense 40-yards in four plays, capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to David Patten, giving the Patriots to take a 14-3 halftime lead.

Things continued to look glum for Pittsburgh when Kris Brown's 34-yard field goal attempt was blocked by defensive lineman Brian Mitchell and recovered by Troy Brown who lateraled the ball to Antwan Harris for a 49-yard return for a touchdown to give New England a 21-3 advantage.

The Steelers offense then found their rhythm, scoring on the next two possessions with touchdown runs (1, 11) by Jerome Bettis and Amos Zereoue, respectively, pulling Pittsburgh within 21-17 through three quarters.

New England kicker Adam Vinatieri's 44-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter put the Patriots up 24-17 with 11:12 left. The Steelers were forced to punt on the ensuing drive and Kordell Stewart was intercepted in their final two possessions.

2002 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 36, Cleveland 33
January 5, 2003
(63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers rallied from a 13-point, fourth-quarter deficit to defeat the Cleveland Browns, 36-33, in one of the most thrilling games in team history.

The Steelers overcame three early turnovers and several big plays by Cleveland to register the come-from-behind victory. Pittsburgh trailed 24-7 in the third quarter and 33-21 in the fourth before scoring two touchdowns in the final 3:06 to win.

The Browns led 14-0 after a touchdown run by RB William Green and a 32-yard TD pass by QB Kelly Holcomb to WR Dennis Northcutt.

Steelers' rookie WR Antwaan Randle El muffed a punt earlier that set up a Browns' score, but he rebounded to return his next punt 66 yards for a touchdown to make the score, 14-7. It was the longest postseason punt return in Steelers' history and the first punt return for a touchdown in the postseason by a Steeler.

The Browns increased their lead to 24-7 on a 31-yard field goal by K Phil Dawson and a 15-yard touchdown pass.

Steelers QB Tommy Maddox, who threw for a team postseason-record 367 yards and three touchdowns, connected with WR Plaxico Burress for a six-yard touchdown pass with 3:50 left in the third quarter to close the score to 24-14.

A 22-yard touchdown pass by Holcomb increased Cleveland's lead to 33-21 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

Maddox led Pittsburgh on a 10-play, 77-yard drive, capped off by a five-yard TD pass to WR Hines Ward to pull within five, 33-28.

Pittsburgh forced the Browns to punt and then drove 61 yards in 1:41, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by RB Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala. Randle El then completed a pass to Tuman for the two-point conversion to give the Steelers a 36-33 lead.

2002 AFC Divisional Playoff

Tennessee 34, Pittsburgh 31 (OT)
January 11, 2003
(68,809)

NASHVILLE — The Steelers lost a hard-fought game against the Tennessee Titans in overtime, 34-31.

The Titans jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, but the Steelers scored 20 straight points by early in the third quarter.

QB Tommy Maddox led Pittsburgh on an eight-play, 61-yard drive at the end of the second quarter and Reed's 39-yard field goal made the score 14-13 at the half.

On Tennessee's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Steelers NT Casey Hampton tackled George for a two-yard loss, forcing a fumble that was recovered by DE Aaron Smith. George received a concussion and did not return to the game.

Pittsburgh capitalized on the fumble when RB Amos Zereoue broke several tackles and raced 31 yards for a touchdown on the first play, which put it ahead 20-14.

Two Tennessee scores made it 28-20 before Maddox connected with Ward for a 21-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to make the score 28-26. Ward tied the game with a pass to Plaxico Burress for the two-point conversion.

Reed's 40-yard field goal and a 42-yard kick by Tennessee K Joe Nedney made the score 31-31 in the fourth quarter. Nedney missed a 48-yard attempt at the end of regulation.

Tennessee got the ball in overtime and McNair completed two passes to WR Justin McCareins to put the Titans in field-goal position. Nedney missed a 31-yard attempt, but Steelers CB Dewayne Washington was flagged for running into the kicker. Nedney then converted a 26-yarder to give the Titans a 34-31 victory.

2004 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 20, New York Jets 17 (OT)
January 15, 2005
(64,917)

PITTSBURGH — A 33-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed allowed the Steelers to pull out a thrilling, 20-17, overtime victory against the New York Jets at Heinz Field.

The Steelers nearly saw their Super Bowl dreams end twice in the fourth quarter, but Jets K Doug Brien missed field goals of 47 and 43 yards in the final 2:02, sending the game into overtime tied at 17-17.

Pittsburgh took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 45-yard field goal by Reed. Steelers' SS Troy Polamalu intercepted Pennington's next pass and returned it 14 yards to the Jets 25-yard line, setting up a three-yard touchdown run by RB Jerome Bettis for a 10-0 Pittsburgh lead.

The Jets tied the game in the second quarter on a field goal (42) by Brien and a 75-yard punt return by Santana Moss.

The game remained tied until late in the third quarter when Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets SS Reggie Tongue, who returned the ball 86 yards for a touchdown and a 17-10 New York lead.

The Jets held the lead until Roethlisberger completed a four-yard shovel pass to WR Hines Ward, tying the game at 17-17, with six minutes left in regulation.

Brien missed a 47-yard field-goal attempt with 2:02 left in regulation, but Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets CB David Barrett, who returned it 24 yards to the Pittsburgh 37. Brien, however, missed a 43-yard attempt at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime.

After the Jets were forced to punt on their first drive in overtime, Pittsburgh regained possession at their own 13-yard line and moved the ball 72 yards on 13 plays, to the New York 15-yard line. After a New York timeout, Reed booted his 33-yard field goal to win the game.

2004 AFC Championship Game

New England 41, Pittsburgh 27
January 23, 2005
(65,242)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers dreams of advancing to the Super Bowl ended as they lost a disappointing 41-27 loss to New England in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Three first-half Steelers' turnovers were converted into 17 New England points as the Patriots jumped out to a 24-3 lead at halftime, despite controlling the ball for only 10:19.

Steelers rookie QB Ben Roethlisberger suffered his first career loss as a starter. His first pass of the game was intercepted by New England, setting up a 48-yard Adam Vinatieri field goal.

New England capitalized on its next possession when QB Tom Brady hit WR Deion Branch for a 60-yard touchdown score.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 10-3 on a 43-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed. The Patriots extended their lead to 17-3 on a nine-yard TD pass to WR David Givens.

The Steelers were ready to answer on their next drive, moving the ball to the New England 19. But Roethlisberger's pass was picked off by S Rodney Harrison and returned 87 yards for a touchdown.

Steelers RB Jerome Bettis scored on a five-yard touchdown run to bring Pittsburgh within 24-10 in the third. On the next drive, though, the Patriots increased the lead to 31-10 on a 25-yard touchdown run by Corey Dillon.

A 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward and a 20-yard field goal by Jeff Reed trimmed the lead to 31-17.

Vinatieri's 31-yard field goal and a 23-yard touchdown pass to Branch extended the Patriots lead to 41-20.

Pittsburgh scored its final touchdown on a seven-yard pass to Burress, but New England ran out the clock for the victory.

2005 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 31, Cincinnati 17
January 8, 2006
(65,870)

CINCINNATI — Pittsburgh scored 24 unanswered points to turn a 17-7 deficit into a 31-17 victory over Cincinnati in the AFC Wild Card Game at Paul Brown Stadium. The win marked the first road playoff victory for head coach Bill Cowher.

The Pittsburgh offense compiled 346 total yards led by QB Ben Roethlisberger, who tossed three touchdowns and finished with a QB rating of 148.7. RB Jerome Bettis ran for 52 yards on 10 carries (5.2 avg.) and one touchdown. WR Cedrick Wilson caught three passes for 104 yards (34.7 avg.), with one touchdown.

The Steelers defense recorded four sacks and two interceptions while holding the Bengals to just 84 yards rushing.

Cincinnati was dealt an early blow when starting QB Carson Palmer suffered a torn ACL on the first offensive play of the game. The Bengals jumped out to a 10-0 lead with a 23-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham and a 20-yard touchdown run by RB Rudi Johnson.

Pittsburgh got on the board when RB Willie Parker took a screen pass 19 yards for a touchdown, the first postseason touchdown catch by a Steelers' running back since Rocky Bleier in Super Bowl XIII (Jan. 21, 1979).

Backup QB Jon Kitna gave the Bengals another 10-point lead after he hit WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh responded with four straight scores. Roethlisberger completed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward for the final score of the first half. Ward extended his streak to five consecutive postseason games with at least one touchdown and the Steelers trailed, 17-14, at halftime.

The Steelers scored on their opening drive of the second half with a five-yard touchdown run by Bettis to give Pittsburgh its first lead at 21-17. Pittsburgh extended its lead with a trick play. WR Antwaan Randle El took a direct snap and ran to his right. He stopped and threw the ball across the field to Roethlisberger, who then threw a 43-yard touchdown strike to Wilson.

James Farrior ended the next Bengals' possession by intercepting a Kitna pass. The turnover led to a 21-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to complete the scoring. SS Troy Polamalu also intercepted a Kitna pass.

2005 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 21, Indianapolis 18
Jan. 15, 2006
RCA Dome (57,449)

INDIANAPOLIS — Pittsburgh advanced to its second straight AFC Championship Game with a dramatic 21-18 victory over the Indianapolis Colts at the RCA Dome. The win propelled the Steelers to their sixth appearance in the conference title game during Bill Cowher's 14 seasons as head coach for Pittsburgh and it also marked the first time a six seed advanced to the conference championship in league history.

Avenging an earlier-season setback to the Colts, Pittsburgh came out of the gates on fire by scoring on a 10-play, 84-yard drive to open the game that culminated with a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antwaan Randle El.

The Steelers upped their lead to 14-0 in the first quarter after Roethlisberger connected with rookie TE Heath Miller on a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh's defense, which kept the high-scoring Indianapolis offense in check for most of the game, allowed just a field goal in the first half as they entered the half with a 14-3 advantage.

The Steelers stretched the lead to 21-3 with under two minutes remaining in the third quarter as RB Jerome Bettis dove in from one yard out. It was his eighth career postseason rushing touchdown and the fourth straight game with a rushing score.

Indianapolis finally posted a touchdown as Peyton Manning hit Dallas Clark for a 50-yard strike early in the fourth quarter, pulling the Colts to within 21-10.

Pittsburgh took over with eight minutes off the clock but came up empty on their next offensive drive. Indianapolis then used a three-yard rushing touchdown by Edgerrin James and a successful two-point conversion to make the game 21-18 with 4:24 remaining.

After punting the ball back to the Colts with 2:31 left in the game, Pittsburgh's defense appeared to have sealed the victory by pressuring Indianapolis to minus-16 yards while giving the ball back to its' offense on the two-yard line.

However, on the first play Bettis uncharacteristically fumbled and Nick Harper picked up the ball and darted to the Colts' 42-yard line before Roethlisberger made a shoestring tackle. Five plays later, Mike Vanderjagt's potential game-tying 46-yard field goal sailed wide right with 21 seconds remaining.

Pittsburgh posted five sacks on the day, including 2.5 by LB James Farrior. It limited the Colts to just 58 yards rushing.

Roethlisberger became the first quarterback in NFL history to reach the conference championship game in each of his first two seasons as he finished 14-of-24 for 197 yards and two touchdowns and one interception.

2005 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 34, Denver 17
Jan. 22, 2006
INVESCO Field at Mile High (76,174)

DENVER — Pittsburgh advanced to its first Super Bowl in 10 years as it defeated the Denver Broncos, 34-17, at INVESCO Field at Mile High. The Steelers, who won their seventh straight game overall, became the first team in NFL history to win three straight road playoff games and became the first sixth seed to play in the Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh QB Ben Roethlisberger continued his outstanding postseason play as he finished 21-of-29 for 275 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 124.9. He also added a four-yard rushing touchdown late in the game.

The Steelers jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first quarter as K Jeff Reed booted a 47-yard field goal with 4:11 left. It was the longest postseason field goal for Pittsburgh since Norm Johnson had a 50-yarder in the 1996 AFC Wild Card Game.

Roethlisberger then hit WR Cedrick Wilson on a 12-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter to up the lead to 10-0.

After a Jason Elam field goal pulled the Broncos to within 10-3, Pittsburgh scored two times in the final two minutes of the first half to take a 24-3 halftime lead. RB Jerome Bettis scored from three yards out and WR Hines Ward hauled in a 17-yard pass from Roethlisberger with seven seconds left.

Denver used a 30-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ashley Lelie with 3:36 left in the third quarter to trim the Steelers' advantage to 24-10. However, Reed came right back with a 42-yard field goal on the next possession to make it a 27-10 lead with 13:38 left in the game.

Mike Anderson scored on a three-yard run with just under eight minutes left to bring Denver to within 10 points (27-17), but Roethlisberger's four-yard touchdown sealed the victory for Pittsburgh.

Wilson finished with a game-high five catches for 92 yards while Ward added five receptions for 59 yards. WR Antwaan Randle El also pulled in four catches for 52 yards.

Pittsburgh held the ball for 36:07 but was outgained on the ground 97-90. The Steelers finished with 358 total yards to the Broncos' 308.

CB Ike Taylor and LB Larry Foote each collected an interception for the Pittsburgh defense, while DE Brett Keisel posted two sacks. LB Joey Porter added one sack and also forced a fumble by Plummer.

The Steelers finished the game with an astounding 63 percent (10 of 16) conversion rate on third down.

2007 AFC Wild Card Game

Jacksonville 31, Pittsburgh 29
Jan. 5, 2008
Heinz Field (63,629)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers came back from an 18-point deficit in the fourth quarter but eventually fell to the visiting Jacksonville Jaguars, 31-29, in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field. The loss snapped a four-game postseason winning streak for Pittsburgh and it marked the fourth straight loss to the Jaguars overall.

Pittsburgh jumped out to a 7-0 lead on its first drive as RB Najeh Davenport ran for his first of two one-yard touchdowns on the night. However, on the ensuing kickoff the Jaguars' RB Maurice Jones-Drew returned it 96 yards to the Steelers' three and RB Fred Taylor scored one play later to knot the score at 7-7.

Three first-half interceptions by QB Ben Roethlisberger dug Pittsburgh into a 21-7 halftime deficit. The Steelers would then fall behind 28-10 entering the fourth quarter before igniting the rally.

Roethlisberger found WR Santonio Holmes for a 37-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the final quarter to cut the lead to 28-17.

After a three-and-out by Jacksonville, Roethlisberger again engineered a scoring drive on the next possession as he hit TE Heath Miller for a 14-yard touchdown with 10:25 remaining in the game. A failed two-point conversion made the score 28-23.

CB Ike Taylor then intercepted a David Garrard pass on the second play of the ensuing Jaguars possession before Davenport pushed his way into the end zone for his second score of the night at the 6:21 mark of the fourth quarter.

Both teams were unable to score on the next two drives, which gave Jacksonville the ball back with 2:38 to go in the game. The Jaguars eventually marched down to the Steelers' seven-yard line, thanks in large part to a 32-yard run by Garrard on a fourth-and-two play earlier in the drive. K Josh Scobee booted the game-winning 25-yard field goal with 37 seconds left in the contest.

WR Hines Ward had a standout game for the Steelers by catching 10 passes for a playoff career-high 135 yards (13.5 avg.). Miller added eight catches for 85 yards and a touchdown.

Rookie LB LaMarr Woodley posted a team-high two sacks as the Steelers held Jacksonville to just 239 yards of total offense.

2008 AFC Divisional Playoff Game

Pittsburgh 35, San Diego 24
Jan. 11, 2009
Heinz Field (63,899)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to their fourth AFC Championship Game in eight seasons as they defeated the San Diego Chargers 35-24 in an AFC Divisional contest at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh advanced to its 14th career AFC Championship Game with the win.

San Diego struck first on the opening possession of the game, covering 75 yards in only four plays, taking barely two minutes off the game clock. WR Vincent Jackson got behind Steelers' CB Ike Taylor and hauled in a 41-yard touchdown reception to give the Chargers a 7-0 lead.

Steelers' WR Santonio Holmes evened the score when he returned a punt 67 yards for a score. San Diego retook the lead, 10-7, courtesy of a 42-yard field goal by K Nate Kaeding.

RB Willie Parker gave the Steelers a 14-10 lead that they would never relinquish with 40 seconds remaining in the first half when he ran into the end zone around left end on a three-yard touchdown scamper.

The Steelers stretched that lead to 21-10 as they drove 77 yards in 13 plays, taking 7:56 off the clock with their opening possession of the third quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller on an eight-yard touchdown reception to cap the drive.

RB Gary Russell swelled the lead to 28-10 when he plunged across the goal-line from one-yard out in the beginning of the fourth quarter.

San Diego scored two touchdowns, a four-yard reception by WR Legedu Naanee and a 62-yard reception by RB Darren Sproles, sandwiched around a 16-yard touchdown run by Parker, his second score of the evening, to conclude the scoring in favor of the Steelers, 35-24.

Roethlisberger had a very efficient game, completing 17-of-26 passes for 181 yards with one touchdown and a passer rating of 98.4. He improved to 6-2 (.750 pct.) in the playoffs. Parker recorded his first career 100-yard rushing performance in the postseason with 146 yards on 27 attempts (5.4 avg.) with two touchdowns. WR Hines Ward had another big postseason performance with four receptions for 70 yards (17.5 avg.), including a long reception of 41 yards.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Rivers four times, with LB LaMarr Woodley leading the charge with two sacks. LB James Harrison and DE Brett Keisel had the other two Steelers' sacks. LB Larry Foote had a third-quarter interception, the second of his postseason career.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers put themselves in position to become the first NFL franchise to win six Vince Lombardi Trophies when they face the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII on February 1. Pittsburgh earned their second trip to the Super Bowl in four seasons by defeating the Baltimore Ravens 23-14 in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh struck first following the opening kickoff, covering 50 yards in seven plays, the key play being a 45-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Hines Ward. K Jeff Reed connected from 34 yards out to make it 3-0 in favor of Pittsburgh.

Reed would increase the Pittsburgh lead to 6-0 when he nailed his second field goal, this time a 42-yarder, following an interception by Steelers' CB Deshea Townsend.

The Steelers faced a third-and-nine situation from their own 36-yard line barely a minute into the second quarter when Roethlisberger and WR Santonio Holmes teamed up on a 65-yard scoring strike that put the Steelers ahead 13-0.

Baltimore got on the scoreboard with 2:40 remaining in the first half when RB Willis McGahee ran into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 13-7.

Reed converted his third field goal of the afternoon, a 46-yarder, with 3:38 left to play in the third quarter to increase the Steelers' lead to 16-7. McGahee's one-yard run with 9:29 to play in regulation allowed Baltimore to creep within two points of the lead, 16-14.

Steelers' S Troy Polamalu ended any thoughts Baltimore had of completing the comeback when he intercepted a QB Joe Flacco pass and took it 40 yard into the end zone to clinch a 23-14 Steelers' victory.

Roethlisberger led the Steelers offensively, completing 16-of-33 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown for a passer rating of 84.8. RB Willie Parker rushed 24 times for 47 yards (2.0 avg.). Holmes caught two passes for 70 yards (35.0 avg.) and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Flacco three times, including two by LB LaMarr Woodley, his third consecutive postseason game with two-sacks, and one by DE Aaron Smith. Along with Polamalu and Townsend, S Tyrone Carter had the Steelers' other interception. S Ryan Clark forced a fumble near the end of regulation which was recovered by LB Lawrence Timmons.

2010 AFC Divisional Playoff Game

Pittsburgh 31, Baltimore 24
Jan. 15, 2011
Heinz Field (64,879)

PITTSBURGH — Down 14 points at halftime, the Steelers rallied to score 24 second-half points to beat the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game. With the victory, Pittsburgh improved to 3-0 all-time against the Ravens in the postseason. The Steelers advanced to their 15th AFC Championship game since 1970 and for the fifth time since 2001.

The Steelers got off to a hot start as RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out on the Steelers' first drive of the game. It was Mendenhall's first career postseason rushing touchdown. The Ravens responded with a 10-play drive that was capped off with a 14-yard touchdown run by RB Ray Rice.

The Ravens went up 14-7 when DE Cory Redding returned QB Ben Roethlisberger's fumble 13 yards for a touchdown. And following another Steelers' turnover, QB Joe Flacco found TE Todd Heap for a four-yard touchdown and a 21-7 Ravens' lead at halftime.

Early in the third quarter the Steelers defense took over the game, forcing turnovers on three consecutive Ravens' possessions. After a fumble by Rice, Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a nine-yard score to cut the lead 21-14. S Ryan Clark then posted his first career postseason interception, picking off Flacco to set the Steelers up in Ravens' territory. Roethlisberger then found WR Hines Ward for an eight-yard touchdown and the game was tied 21-21. Roethlisberger finished the game with 226 yards passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

Another Ravens fumble led to K Shaun Suisham's 35-yard field goal, which gave the Steelers a 24-21 lead. But the Ravens tied the game on K Billy Cundiff's 24-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter. The Steelers took over with less than four minutes left in the game, and they faced a third-and-19 from their own 38-yard line. Roethlisberger found rookie WR Antonio Brown streaking down the sideline for a 58-yard completion to set up Mendenhall's game-winning one-yard touchdown run, his second of the game.

The Steelers defense limited the Ravens to just 126 yards, the second-lowest total in team postseason history. The defense had five sacks, including three by LB James Harrison, forced three turnovers and held the Ravens to just 28 yards in the second half.

2010 AFC Championship Game

Pittsburgh 24, New York Jets 19
Jan. 23, 2011
Heinz Field (66,662)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers advanced to their eighth Super Bowl with a 24-19 victory over the New York Jets in the AFC Championship at Heinz Field. The eight trips to the Super Bowl are tied for the most in NFL history with the Dallas Cowboys, and the Steelers' eight wins in an AFC Championship Game are the most in conference history.

The Steelers grabbed a 7-0 lead on the opening drive of the game as RB Rashard Mendenhall capped off the 15-play drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 121 yards rushing, which is the sixth-most in team postseason history.

K Shaun Suisham added to the Steelers' lead with his 20-yard field goal in the second quarter to make it 10-0, and with two minutes left in the half, QB Ben Roethlisberger scored on a two-yard touchdown run to give the Steelers a 17-0 lead. It was Roethlisberger's third career postseason rushing touchdown.

On the Jets' ensuing drive, CB Ike Taylor posted a sack and forced fumble, both career firsts in the postseason, and CB William Gay returned the fumble 19 yards to make it 24-0. It was Gay's first career postseason touchdown and the first defensive touchdown for Pittsburgh in the postseason since LB James Harrison's 100-yard interception return for touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII.

The Jets got on the board just prior to halftime when K Nick Folk connected from 42 yards out to trim the lead to 24-3. On the Jets' first drive of the second half, QB Mark Sanchez found WR Santonio Holmes for a 45-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 24-10. Following a goal-line stand by the Steelers' defense, Roethlisberger fumbled the first snap and was tackled in the end zone for a safety.

On the Jets' next drive, Sanchez found WR Jericho Cotchery for a four-yard touchdown to make it 24-19 with three minutes left in the game. The Steelers converted on two key third-downs on their ensuing drive, including the game-winning first down reception by WR Antonio Brown to seal their second AFC Championship in the last three seasons.

Pittsburgh improved to 5-1 in the postseason under Head Coach Mike Tomlin with the victory. Tomlin joined Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs as the only head coaches to reach two Super Bowls in their first four seasons as a head coach.

2011 AFC Wild Card Game

Denver 29, Pittsburgh 23 (OT)
Jan. 8, 2012
Sports Authority Field at Mile High (75,970)

DENVER — QB Tim Tebow and WR Demaryius Thomas connected on an 80-yard touchdown on the first play in overtime to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 29-23 in the AFC Wild Card Game. It was the fasted ending in NFL history for any overtime game.

The Steelers got off to a fast start, moving the football into Denver territory on their first two possessions. But they had to settle for two field goals. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 45-yarder to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead, and with less than a minute remaining in the first quarter, Suisham connected on a 38-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 6-0.

But the Broncos would score 20 unanswered points. Tebow found WR Eddie Royal for a 30-yard touchdown to give the Broncos a 7-6 lead. Tebow then scored on an eight-yard run less than three minutes later to give the Broncos a 14-6 lead. K Matt Prater connected on two field goals of 20 and 28 yards before halftime to give the Broncos a 20-6 lead going into the break.

The Steelers though would mount a comeback. WR Mike Wallace scored on a one-yard run midway through the third quarter to cut the lead 20-13. Prater added a 35-yard field goal to give the Broncos a 23-13 lead but the Steelers answered with another Suisham field goal.

Trailing 23-16, the Steelers defense forced RB Willis McGahee to fumble, giving QB Ben Roethlisberger a short field. Roethlisberger found WR Jerricho Cotchery for a 31-yard touchdown to tie the game 23-23.

The Steelers had a chance to win the game in regulation, but Roethlisberger was sacked on two of the team's final three plays, forcing overtime. After Suisham's kickoff sailed through the uprights, the Broncos took over at their own 20-yard line. Tebow threw the touchdown to Thomas on the very next play.

Despite the loss, the Steelers held each Bronco running back to less than 100 yards rushing. The Steelers have not allowed a single running back to rush for more than 100 yards in 18-consecutive postseason games, the longest current streak in the NFL.

Roethlisberger became just the second player in team history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in the postseason.

PITTSBURGH – QB Joe Flacco's 21-yard touchdown pass to TE Crockett Gillmore midway through the fourth quarter sealed the victory for Baltimore in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh moved the ball well in the first half but only managed to come away with three field goals by K Shaun Suisham (45, 22 and 47). Baltimore RB Bernard Pierce scored on a five-yard run and K Justin Tucker connected on a 28-yard field goal to give Baltimore its 10 points of the first half, and the Ravens led 10-9 at the break.

Tucker connected from 45 yards early in the third quarter to put Baltimore up 13-9. Flacco threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Torrey Smith midway through the third quarter to give the Ravens a 20-9 advantage.

The Steelers got a splash play from their defense early in the fourth quarter when rookie DE Stephon Tuitt recovered a Ravens' fumble. QB Ben Roethlisberger then connected with WR Antonio Brown for a 44-yard gain and rookie WR Martavis Bryant for a six-yard touchdown to cut the lead to 20-15.

Baltimore responded with a 52-yard field goal by Tucker to increase the Ravens' lead to 23-15. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, Roethlisberger was picked off by LB Terrell Suggs. On Baltimore's next play, Flacco hit Gillmore for the game-deciding touchdown.

The Steelers tried to rally but Roethlisberger was picked off in the end zone. A blocked punt for a safety by S Shamarko Thomas cut the Ravens' lead to 30-17.

Trailing by 13, Pittsburgh took over with less than two minutes remaining. TE Heath Miller fumbled and the Ravens secured the football and took over at the Pittsburgh 38-yard line. Baltimore then went into its victory formation.

RB Le'Veon Bell, the team's MVP, wasn't able to suit up due to a knee injury.

Super Bowl IX

Pittsburgh 16, Minnesota 6
January 12, 1975
(80,997)

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in quarterback Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by both defenses. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota defensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' center Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh defensive end Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the 9.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, both new highs for the Super Bowl, and Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

Super Bowl X

Pittsburgh 21, Dallas 17
January 18, 1976
(80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to tight end Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make his catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic 3 interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas safety Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh linebacker Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers reserve fullback Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only 2 yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was caught by the Steelers, Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

Super Bowl XIII

Pittsburgh 35, Dallas 31
January 21, 1979
(78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach saw tight end Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas cornerback Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to tight end Billy Joe Dupree and wide receiver Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

Super Bowl XIV

Pittsburgh 31, Los Angeles 19
January 20, 1980
(103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams defensive end Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers wide receiver John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams cornerback Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit wide receiver Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from quarterback Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Super Bowl XXX

Dallas 27, Pittsburgh 17
January 28, 1996
(76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas cornerback Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions—a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title and its first in 26 years as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history, tying the San Francisco 49ers and Dallas Cowboys.

Backed by predominantly a Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it did not gain a single first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, including a 18-yard end-around run by Ward, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

However, Pittsburgh's defense, which gave up just three points in both of its two previous games in the first half, continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the second quarter as Roethlisberger followed a block by RB Jerome Bettis and dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh came out of halftime and stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score, just 22 seconds into the third quarter. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open as they drove down to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game four plays later on a gadget play, which became a part of the Steelers' arsenal throughout the season. WR Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff from Parker and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with just under nine minutes remaining in the game. Randle El became the first wide receiver in Super Bowl history to throw for a touchdown.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions while the offense milked the clock for over four minutes in the final minutes of the game to post the victory.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks, including one each from CB Deshea Townsend, LB Clark Haggans and NT Casey Hampton.

Super Bowl XLIII

Pittsburgh 27, Arizona 23
Feb. 1, 2009
Raymond James Stadium (70,774)

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight -play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch the Steelers' NFL record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. Roethlisberger and WR Hines Ward connected for a 38-yard gain on the Steelers' second play from scrimmage, setting up an eventual 18-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to double digits, 10-0, when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona quickly answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as though they were going to take their first lead as the first half was set to expire, but LB James Harrison swung momentum back into Pittsburgh's favor by intercepting Warner at the goal-line, racing 100 yards behind several outstanding blocks by his teammates, and diving into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 Steelers advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed capped a 16-play, 79-yard drive which took 8:39 off the third quarter clock, upping the Steelers' lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

Roethlisberger and the Steelers were down, but not out. Backed up to their own 12-yard line following a holding call, Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger scrambled to his right and threaded a perfect pass through three defenders, where Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 42 seconds remaining.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble recovered by DE Brett Keisel, and the Steelers had their second championship in four seasons.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) and the game-winning touchdown reception. He caught four passes for 73 yards on the winning drive. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception for a passer rating of 93.2.TE Heath Miller caught five passes for 57 yards (11.4 avg.).

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

Super Bowl XLV

Green Bay 31, Pittsburgh 25
Feb. 6, 2011
Cowboys Stadium (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay the 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers got on the board early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again. On the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers though would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled, the Packers marched down the field, and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17.

The Steelers, however, responded on their ensuing posession as Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line.
